RUSH RELIEF TO VICTIMS OF GREAT TORNADO

Communication Cut Off as Towns Are Struck; Many Hundreds Injured

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Twenty-nine dead, two missing, hundreds injured and property damage which will run into millions, was the toll of the tornado which swept the mid-west Sunday, according to partially complete reports reaching here over partially re-established wires from the devastated areas of Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas, and Illinois shortly before noon.

Twenty-two were reported killed at Thorp, Wis., which was reported virtually annihilated by the cyclone. At least six more are known to be dead at Ashland.

Whole communities were paralyzed by the storm which broke over the north central states at dusk Sunday afternoon, and steadily increased in intensity as night fell over the stricken areas.

Communication cut to the outside world cut off, relief trains were made up at St. Paul and Chicago and other rail centers to rush medical aid to the stricken towns and villages.

Milwaukee was the largest city in the path of the storm, and one death resulted there from a high tension wire falling to the street. Windows were smashed and streets littered with fallen trees.

Shipping Demoralized
Violent hail and rain accompanying the winds destroyed many field crops and small streams were flooded today.

Lakes Superior and Michigan shipping was demoralized and two boats of Milwaukee harbor were tossed at the mercy of the storm during the night. None are known to be lost.

Railway communications from Peking to the sea were getting worse today and foreign troops will be provided to keep it open as provided in the treaties.

He declared that he was entirely optimistic and has faith in the continued loyalty and courage of his troops west of Shanghai. He said reinforcements were expected soon from the Taihu lake front, which he is abandoning altogether.

Lull In Fighting
Lu said he had received no word from Mukden and admitted the desertion of his cruiser, the Hailow, to the Kiangsu banner, but said the naval contingent lacked munitions and was useless except as troop carriers.

Start Last Minute Fight To Make Campaign for 'Y' Building Success

Doubling Efforts To Get Subscriptions For Institution

The Y. M. C. A. building campaign drive went over the half-way mark at noon today, it was announced by General Chairman George D. McDill at a luncheon held at the Presbyterian church, the total amount now standing at $138,995, subscribed by 918 loyal citizens.

A total of $136,005 still remains to get, and to make every minute of tomorrow count, Mr. McDill announced that the day will start with a 7:45 o'clock breakfast at the Presbyterian church, at noon another luncheon and at night still another get-together of team workers.

Fight, Glendale! Fight!

This stirring battle cry of the Glendale High school football team has been adopted by the Y. M. C. A. building campaign, which is now in its last stages. The team is now only fighting to get the greatly needed Y. M. C. A. building in order that the boys and young men, girls and young women of the city may have its beneficial privileges, but who feel that the good name and proud claims of Glendale are at stake.

Conscious of the fact that other cities, smaller and less able financially than Glendale, have raised funds by popular subscription and now point with pride to splendid, modern homes in their respective communities for the work of the Y. M. C. A., the 200 workers in the local enterprise are doubling their efforts to swing Glendale into the victorious column when the final reports are made at 9 o'clock tomorrow night.

Question of Pride

This movement concerns all Glendale. It is not a selfish or commercial undertaking, but a big, civic, altruistic, philanthropic, united effort to meet an outstanding community need. "It is not now a question alone of the Y. M. C. A., for, after all, the 'Y' is simply the means to an end, and that is the safeguarding and character training of our boys," said C. D. Lusby, one of the foremost workers in the campaign this morning, "but it is now clearly a question of civic pride. Does Glendale want it to be said that this wonderfully growing and reasonably prosperous community could not or would not subscribe and invest the sum of $275,000 to build a Y. M. C. A. headquarters at this time, when our boys are appealing by the hundreds for the same kind of a 'Y' that every other city in California has provided, and when we are spending a much larger amount for the utilities of a growing city which,

Mayor Makes Proclamation

Tomorrow is the last day in the drive to secure $275,000 for a Young Men's Christian Association building for Glendale. The big drive is scheduled to close then, so Mayor Spencer Robinson today issued the following proclamation declaring Tuesday as a day when a special effort should be made for the campaign, and urging all citizens to assist:

"Whereas, The city of Glendale is in the midst of an effort to secure a Y. M. C. A. building, and

"Whereas, The Young Men's Christian Association is one of the most effective institutions in all progressive cities, giving the young man a chance to realize physically, mentally and morally, the ideals of life, making young men clean, strong, energetic, law abiding, and

"Whereas, The success of this movement requires the thorough cooperation of every person in the city, and

"Whereas, 200 representative citizens have undertaken, at a great sacrifice of personal interests, a campaign which has now aroused public interest,

"Now, therefore, I, through the authority vested in me as mayor of Glendale, do set aside Tuesday, September 23, as a day of special effort in behalf of this movement and do recommend that all people of Glendale do observe this day as Y. M. C. A. day and that they assist the efforts of the committees by personal contributions and by favorable presentation of the cause to their friends and neighbors to the end that the securing of a multitude of gifts, large and small, may produce the desired result in securing for Glendale this most important building.

"SPENCER ROBINSON, Mayor of Glendale."

Realty Board Again Endorses Bond Issue

The Glendale Realty board endorsed the $1,705,500 municipal improvement bond issue to be voted on September 30, at a special luncheon meeting held this noon at the Allen Inn, 210 1/2 So. Brand Boulevard, W. L. Twining presiding in the absence of President Peter Hanson, who was attending the Y. M. C. A. drive luncheon at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Twining urged united work by everyone if the bonds are to carry, declaring: "There are certain people in Glendale who would oppose a front seat in heaven, if it would defeat the city administration."

The Realty board agreed to back the bond parade at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a number of decorated automobiles. L. H. Wilson urged every realtor to be present on Saturday night at the city ball park, on San Fernando road near Park avenue, when a bond program will be offered. Lon J. Haddock, Alex Nibley, R. N. Stryker and Councilman C. E. Kimlin were among those who spoke in favor of the bonds.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—There is $40,000 waiting for Helmar Christensen, chief engineer on a Pacific liner, if he chances to read this story. Her search for him brought her the information that in 1918, he ran for alderman in Seattle, Wash., and that in 1920 he became chief engineer on a Pacific liner. Further than that, she has not been able to trace him.

HUGE CROWD WELCOMES RETURNING CRUISERS

Flight Around World Will Be Completed In One Hop of 100 Miles

BULLETIN
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 22.—Lieutenant Smith announced this afternoon that it is the intention to leave for Clover Field, Santa Monica, about noon tomorrow. The flyers expect to reach the starting point of their world flight in about one hour.

By WILLIAM G. CAYCE

For International News Service.
ROCKWELL FIELD, North Island, San Diego, Sept. 22.—America has all but completed its task of belting the globe by air. One more hop of 100 miles to Clover field, Santa Monica, and the round-the-world flight will be an accomplished fact.

The three United States world cruisers, which set out last March 17, from Santa Monica to string an aerial lane around the earth, landed here safely at 10:30 o'clock today after a 375-mile jump from Tucson, Ariz.

Tomorrow or Wednesday, depending upon whether the motors are changed here, the flyers will leave for Clover field.

Smith's official landing time was 10:34:48; Nelson, 10:34:51; Wade, 10:35.

Lieutenant Lowell Smith, flight commander, flying the "Chicago," was the first of the trio to land. He was followed an instant later by Lieutenant Eric Nelson, in the "New Orleans," and Lieutenant Leigh Wade in the "Boston II."

Many Escort Planes

The flyers, traveling in perfect "V" formation, were sighted in the eastern sky at 10:24 a. m. At first the giant Douglas cruisers, accompanied by more than forty escort planes from North Island, resembled so many black specks in the heavens. But a minute later the globe-circling planes were well into view and the first sound of their roaring Liberty motors was the signal for the 100,000 persons who craned their necks from windows, streets and building tops below for a good glimpse of the flyers, to flame forth in one spontaneous outburst of cheering.

The flyers, though high in the air they were and riding on the laps of the clouds, certainly must have heard that vociferous welcome as all San Diego and hundreds of others who had come here from various parts of South-

Glendale to Present Flowers to Aviators

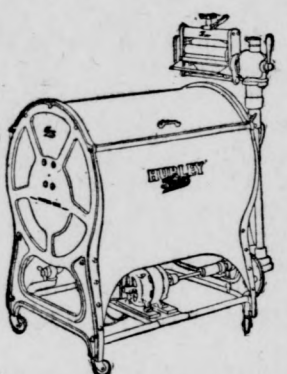

Plans were completed this morning for Glendale's floral contribution to the decoration of Clover field, Santa Monica, in honor of the three world fliers, who are expected to complete their aerial circumnavigation of the globe there tomorrow, before 200,000 spectators, announces Secretary Howard I. Wood of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

A special truck bearing the floral tribute will leave from outside the local C. of C. office, 150 South Brand boulevard, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, driven by George Lyons, chairman of the special committee of arrangements, who will make the trip to Clover field accompanied by Mr. Wood.

Among the multitudes of gorgeous blooms making up the official gift of this city to the returned fliers will be 1000 mammoth asters, the product of local greenhouses. Mr. Lyons and Mr. Wood will deliver the flowers to Robert M. Allen of the general committee, who will have charge of placing them with the floral tributes of other Southern California cities.

EX-ARMY SURGEON RELEASES REMARKABLE TONIC LAXATIVE CALLED "RED MIXTURE"

A non-habit-forming Tonic Laxative, in use in hospitals for the past 20 years, is now being placed upon the general market by its originator, a prominent ex-army surgeon. To the sufferer from tardy action of the bowels, who dreads the habit-forming tendency of common laxatives, this remedy, known as "RED MIXTURE," comes as a blessing undisguised.

"RED MIXTURE" contains no narcotics, but builds up the system while regulating the bowel movement and eliminating insidious toxins that produce intestinal disorders. "RED MIXTURE" cleanses the bowels without gripping or irritation of intestinal membranes, consequently a normal, healthy condition of the system is restored, with no habit-forming effect. Excellent for expectant mothers and infants. Sold in 75c and $1.50 bottles. If your druggist cannot supply you at once, send 75c to Golden State Pharmaceutical Co., Long Beach, Cal., for bottle sufficiently large to prove efficiency. Money back if not satisfactory.

Standards to Warn Drivers Near Schools

Arrangements have been perfected between Virgil B. Stone, city manager, and Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department, whereby ten-foot standards bearing the words "School Crossing, Slow Down" will be placed on the curb line at the following crossings: Colorado boulevard and Sycamore Canyon road, Glendale and Cerritos avenues, Colorado boulevard and Pacific avenue, Western avenue and Glenwood road, Colorado boulevard and Glendale avenue.

"While these locations are from one to three blocks from schools," says Chief Fraser in a letter to Mr. Stone confirming the plan, "the intersections referred to have heavy traffic on them and by arrangement with school authorities I can have the children instructed to cross these streets at the places mentioned."

These standards will not interfere with any at present in operation at the various city schools. Mr. Stone states, but will supplement them and give added protection to the children.

Oakland Man to Take Up Membership Work for Local Organization

Lawrence H. Grady, head of the membership department of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, today assumed the position of assistant secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. He arrived from Oakland this morning and began his duties immediately. Mr. Grady's family consists of wife and daughter, Mary, aged 7, who expect to move here about October 5.

Mr. Grady will serve as organizer in both the membership work of the Chamber of Commerce and in handling the advertising service fund. The character of his work at Oakland is best shown by a letter, under date of September 18, 1924, from the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to the board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. This letter reads:

"Board of Directors, Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Glendale, California.

"Gentlemen:—This letter is to congratulate the Glendale Chamber of Commerce on having secured the services of Mr. Lawrence H. Grady. In my judgment, he is one of the best membership men in the west. It is only because of his ambition to eventually become a Chamber of Commerce secretary that we have consented to let him go. As a membership man he cannot be beaten and, I believe, that given the proper opportunity, he will get on excellently as an assistant secretary."

"Very truly yours,"

"OAKLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE."

"By W. L. Miller, Managing Director."

Mr. Grady is 34 years of age. He was born in Minnesota. He went into business shortly after he was 20 years of age, in the state of Montana, and later became general manager of the Broadwater-Pepin Trading Co., which operated a string of stores in that state. Five years ago he came west and located at Oakland, due to illness of a member of his family. For two years he was district manager of the Acacia Life Insurance Co., and made a splendid record in writing life insurance. He resigned to take up membership and organization work with the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and remained with that organization until coming to Glendale.

Newspaper Notice
Oakland's opinion of Mr. Grady is shown in the following press notice from The Oakland Tribune: "Appointment is announced of Lawrence H. Grady of the membership department of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce as assistant secretary and financial director of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce."

Grady will work with Howard I. Wood, managing director of the Glendale organization. Wood is a former Oaklander, and appointed Grady to the new post shortly after his affiliation with the Chamber of Commerce there.

"Today Grady will leave for the South, to take up his new work. His family will leave their Berkeley home in a few weeks to take up their residence in Glendale."

"Before joining the Oakland Chamber of Commerce staff, Grady was district manager of the Acacia Mutual Life Insurance staff."

Committee to Pass on Advertising Projects

Aside from routine business of the Glendale Merchants' association, their noonday luncheon today in the Alley Inn Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, brought before the members the proposal of the chamber to pass upon all advertising stunts outside of regularly established publication, and adopted by the merchants giving their support to such a committee.

Mr. Wood also introduced Lawrence H. Grady, newly appointed membership secretary of the chamber. C. J. Hatz presided over the meeting.

TOKYO, Sept. 22.—No more joy rides in the official motor cars of the Department of Railways of Japan. This is the first edict of Dr. Sengoku, newly named Minister of Railways in Japan. While joyriding in Japan has been more or less limited in the past, due to

Waterfront Patrol Is Planned by New Haven

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 22.—Times are changing, according to old-timers, who were amazed when police commissioners announced they planned a marine precinct to protect New Haven's eighteen miles of waterfront. The erstwhile harbor of windjammers that distributed New Haven products from Calais to Tampa is suffering as never before from bandits who operate in speedy motorboats, bootleggers that seem to have plenty of customers, and careless boat handlers. So police intend to patrol the harbor front and the slips, and maybe assist the fire department when fires occur near the docks.

the poor roads both in the cities and the suburbs, there has, nevertheless, developed recently a custom on the part of minor officials in the Railways Department to take young Japanese "flappers" into the country over week-ends in cars which bear the license plates of the Department of Railways.

"Not only have the minor officials used motor cars of the department for their own convenience outside of the service, but in some cases they have taken part in scandalous parties in official cars," said one official recently, "and excessive repair bills have been the result."

FIRE FORCE MEETS AT BANQUET

F. P. Newport Co. Host at Big Affair in Honor of Glendale Unit

The Old Adobe in Verdugo Woodlands re-echoed the colorful Spanish atmosphere of a century ago, Sunday afternoon, when approximately 100 city officials and members of the Glendale unit, Angeles Forest Protective association were guests of the F. P. Newport Co., subscribers, at a monster barbecue held in honor of Chief P. J. Hayselden's efficient band of hill fire fighters.

As master of ceremonies, F. P. Newport electrified the atmosphere with the announcement that his company would pay $1,000 cash to the family of any fire fighter who lost his life while battling fire on the Newport property, and that anyone who lost or ruined his clothes fighting fire on the property of this company, and was not reimbursed by the city or county, would be reimbursed by him in full.

Wesley Kuhnle Gives Recital Tuesday Night

Glendale is to have the pleasurable opportunity tomorrow night of hearing a Glendale artist and one of California's younger musicians in recital at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse on North Central avenue at West Lexington drive, where Wesley Kuhnle, pianist and teacher, will make his first public appearance since his recent return from the east and abroad. Invitations have been sent to musicians and music lovers in Glendale and other Southern California cities and the event will inaugurate the local musical season. Mr. Kuhnle's friends are anxious to hear him after his study in New York, Leipzig, Berlin and London.

One critic has said of Mr. Kuhnle, "Chiefly complimentary to Mr. Kuhnle's ability as a pianist, is a most accurate technique and a keen mental understanding of the laws of pianistic expression. He plays with excellent contrast in shading, an almost religious treatment of the pedal, and a carefully studied appreciation of melodic content."

Mr. Kuhnle's program tomorrow night will include: Beethoven—Moonlight Sonata, opus 27, No. 2; Mendelssohn—Four Songs Without Words, opus 53, No. 4; F. Major, opus 62, No. 6; Spring Song, opus 30, No. 3; E. Major, opus 67, No. 4; Spinning Song; Rachmaninoff—Prelude in C Sharp Minor; Albeniz—Tango and Seguidilla; Chopin—Scherzo in B Flat Minor; Waltzes in C Sharp Minor and G Flat Major; Etudes in G Flat Major (Black Key), and E Major Polonaise Militaire. The recital will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Not Much Left When Car Thief Is Through

G. A. Felstrom of 1817 Academy place has decided he will not leave his car parked in front of his home in future. Saturday night it was visited by a very thorough-going thief, who relieved it of practically everything movable, including a spare tire, gas tank, vacuum tank, speedometer, ignition switch, battery and other parts incidental to the machine's performance of its duties. Pete Braccamento of Los Angeles left his car parked on Canada boulevard Saturday night, he reports. When he came out to go home, he found it had been crushed into by another car, with crushing effect. He notified the police and the car was towed to a garage.

Chief of Police Goes To Officers' Meeting

Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department left this morning for Catalina Island, to attend the two-day session of the Peace Officers' Association of California, convening there today and tomorrow, presided over by Sheriff Frank Barnett of Oakland, Alameda county, president. The conference will take up such matters as care of prisons, safety of officers and crime prevention. Chief Fraser stated as he was leaving, and will also consider the value of the criminology courses being offered at certain universities in the state.

Umbrellas of standard size that will fold into ten-inch bundles have appeared.

WOMEN AID CAMPAIGN WORKERS

Mrs. Daniel Campbell and Assistants in Final Drive for Funds

"The Campbells are coming." Re-inforcements are swinging into line to battle today and tomorrow with the business men and boys in the herculean effort to bridge the gap and reach the $275,000 goal for Glendale's Y. M. C. A. building. Mrs. Daniel Campbell is the leader of the women's organization of fifty called into action to help save the day.

Splendidly have the women responded—minute women—their not to reason why—they heard the S. O. S. of the fighting forces for Glendale's good name and, with the aid of civic patriotism and motherhood, have volunteered to aid in the big "Y" campaign. Hold War Council The women met in war council yesterday afternoon at the church headquarters of the campaign and were quickly equipped for action. General Mrs. Campbell announced that her division will be known as the "Helpmates" and her associates as Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. Ed Lee and Mrs. O. E. Von Oven. Five team captains were also named by Mrs. Campbell, and to each she attached a battling cognomen. Team 21 will be known as "The Long Hairs," and Mrs. George D. McMillan has accepted the captaincy. Team 22 was announced as the "Bobbed Hairs," with Mrs. D. V. Brandt as captain. Team 23 was labelled "Mothers of Sons," and Mrs. Charles Cressey named captain. The women attending the "Y" noon rally today, and will be present at the breakfast gathering at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to Mrs. Campbell and report at the noon and night meetings tomorrow.

Comment

By GIL A. COWAN

All ready for welcoming the world fliers home! Indomitable courage has brought them back to their place of starting. Lieutenants Smith, Nelson and Wade are heroes of tomorrow at Clover field and every aviation enthusiast should be present to pay homage.

For those who have toured the continent in a motorcar, or visited the seven seas in a boat, or enjoyed some flying, an inkling of the experiences may be had. These army fliers, modern types of Columbus, are well deserving the pot of gold gathered for them.

But more than money is the knowledge that their exploit shall live in history.

Announcement of construction plans for another theatre and another hotel in Saturday's issue of The Glendale Evening News brings to mind that there is no slump in building here.

Glendale is going straight ahead and it is well, for the winter's influx of new residents will make history, according to those in the know.

Every highway leading to California has brought caravans. The railroads foresee the greatest winter travel in history and hotel registrations to date in the southland are most gratifying, according to the managers.

While no community should overbuild, Glendale should see the future and meet it with accommodations.

Not only should the building business boom, but mercantile establishments of Glendale may plan on a record winter season. With traffic conditions forcing trade upon stores here and the business men recognizing opportunity, there has been built a trade center in Glendale which was only a dream ten years ago.

Wherever you find Penney's Woolworth, Kroger, Fuller and other national chain store organizations, it is a sign that business is there.

Dr. and Mrs. Rae at Home From Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Rae of 316 Milford street enjoyed a vacation trip of three months, during which they motored north and east. They traveled north by the coast route. They were guests of their son, Dr. Charles A. Rae in St. Maries, Idaho, and of their daughter, Mrs. T. B. Hardie in Colson, Montana. During their trip they visited Spokane and other cities in Washington. They also had the pleasure of visiting Glacier National park.

SINGERS TO MEET

John Smallman will direct work on Russian folk songs at the meeting at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the Harvard High school of the Oratorio department of the Glendale Music club. Members and those interested in joining are invited to attend. Mrs. Perry Rogers is accompanist.

In the fashion centers of Europe a new form of wig made from blown glass has made its appearance. The fine strands of glass are sewn into innumerable small loops or curls which glitter as the wearer moves about and make a scintillating head dress.

Announcing the formation of the Gibraltar Finance Corporation

—offering you an exceptional Investment opportunity

The Gibraltar Finance Corporation has been organized with a capitalization of $1,000,000, offering stock in units of 2 shares of 8% Preferred Stock and 1 share of Common Stock at $200 PER UNIT.

PURPOSE OF BUSINESS

Its business will consist of the purchase and sale of mortgages and carefully chosen trust deeds, for which there is a large and rapidly growing demand.

Los Angeles County is one of the most rapidly developing sections of the United States. The city is now the fifth largest in the country, and for the past three years, has maintained third place among all cities of the United States in volume of building permits issued. It is only natural that this tremendous development and demand for homes has created a demand for mortgage money far greater than the supply. The Gibraltar Finance Corporation has been organized to take advantage of this situation—to give the people of moderate means in this community an opportunity to assist in the development and to share in the profits of that development.

Safety of Company's Money
The working capital of the Gibraltar Finance Corporation will be invested in improved properties, well located in Southern California communities, after a conservative appraisal of their value. These investments will be secured by first mortgages and trust deeds on the properties explained above—which means they are tangible, fixed assets of known value.

Safety of the Investor's Money

Every dollar of yours invested in the Gibraltar Finance Corporation will be secured by tangible assets of the Company, including the first mortgages and trust deeds themselves, and all the profits accruing from the various branches of its operations.

Profits to the Investor

First, there is the interest of 8% on the preferred stock. As attractive as that part is, the profit on the Common Stock should be even greater. To demonstrate, consider a unit of two shares of preferred and one share of common costing $200. Just as soon as the common stock, which costs you nothing, begins to pay 8%, it, too, becomes worth $100, the same as the preferred. The total value of the unit is then $300—or an increase of 50% on the initial investment—in addition to the 8% interest paid on the preferred.

CAMPAIGN BUDGETS

The light of publicity in all its glare is going to be turned on campaign funds this year. Heretofore the details concerning the money spent in the campaign were not available to the public until after election, and that was too late for the information to be of any value to the voter. This year Senator Borah is to make fortnightly reports to the public of collections and expenditures of the major parties. This is as it should be. It is of vital interest to the public to know who is backing the various candidates, for this may have considerable bearing upon the performance of the candidate in office.

There is said to be a very close relationship between the size of the campaign fund and success in the election. Only once—in the Wilson-Hughes campaign—did the party spending the least money win on election day.

Mark Sullivan, political correspondent in the World's Work, contends that there should be no limit to the size of the campaign fund provided it is honestly used and the public is kept informed as to where it comes from and how it is used. He thinks that restricting the total sum places at a disadvantage obscure candidates when they are opposed by prominent men, as it costs huge sums to carry on effective publicity campaigns.

La Follette's campaign managers have announced a budget of $3,000,000, and the Wisconsin senator is calling for contributions from all who have sworn allegiance to him. He has denounced business and cannot expect contributions from that source, so the fund must come from individuals.

WORK AFTER REST

Summer vacation days are about over. Most workers are back on the job after a few weeks or a few months of travel or rest. The one who does not feel the same anticipation and delight in getting back into the harness again that he felt when starting on his summer outing, deserves our pity, for he does not like his work and he is headed straight for failure.

It is a good thing to get out of the rut for a little while. It gives one a chance to see that the little annoying details of the work are of no consequence. The change of scene or of routine sharpens the mind and rests the body, and gives one courage and fortitude, and delight in, the daily grind again.

When our father Adam learned that he was to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, he thought God had pronounced a curse upon the world. But, in reality, work is the greatest blessing that has been bestowed upon humanity. The one who does not work does not know half the joy of life. He does not know the pleasure of rest and recreation or the satisfaction of accomplishment.

A PROMISING FUTURE

Great men are not easily discouraged. When Abraham Lincoln was a young man, he ran for the legislature of Illinois and was badly defeated.

He entered business and failed, and spent seventeen years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful woman to whom he became engaged, and she died.

Entering politics again, he ran for Congress, and was badly defeated. He tried for an appointment in the United States land office, but failed. He became a candidate for the United States Senate, and was defeated.

In 1856 he became a candidate for the vice presidency, but lost the race. In 1858 he was again defeated.

It is sometimes said of young men nowadays that they have a promising future. Everything is rosy for them. That could not have been said of young Lincoln, and yet he became president of the United States and the country's greatest man.

WORRY IS HARMFUL

One of the most foolish ways in which men and women use their brains is in worry, if worrying may be said to be using the brain. Worry is absolutely useless. It cannot change what has already happened, but it may bring about the thing that is dreaded. It is evidence of lack of self control, and a waste of time.

Physical exercise is necessary to keep the body in good condition, but the improper use of the body is harmful. In the same way, mental work only serves to stimulate and develop the brain, while worry wears out the brain cells.

Worry is decidedly harmful, too, in the way of bringing on ill-luck and disaster, for the old maxim that "we find what we are looking for" is true, and when we are always looking for trouble, poverty and ill health, we are almost certain to realize our fears.

YEAR OF THE BIG VOTE

Judge Olvany, successor of Charles F. Murphy as leader of Tammany, says that personal persuasion is the secret of getting people to vote. "Get them registered," is his advice, "and then if they argue as to why they do not vote, be prepared to meet their arguments." There is no one who knows more about this subject than Judge Olvany, and the machine which he operates, and what he says ought to carry some weight. So, if each one of the fifty per cent of the electorate of the country who is accustomed to voting will get some non-voter to register, be prepared to answer him when he argues against voting, and then propel him toward the polls, 1924 would be known as the year of the big vote.

FOR PERSONAL LIBERTY

"The liberty of the individual is being beaten down by the threatening encroachment upon the Constitution of a code of statutes to control the habits and morals of Americans, and the right of man to govern himself is being defeated."

John W. Davis, standard bearer of the Democratic party, is the author of the above, but Mr. Davis made this statement before he became his party's nominee for the presidency.

The microscope is a wonderful instrument, but what power of magnification hath the human tongue.

Another argument in favor of the vacuum cleaner, as against the broom, is that you can dodge it better.

If everybody thought alike on all political questions, how tame politics would be!

"OLD IRONSIDES"

The Familiar Spirit

By DR. FRANK CRANE

The idea of the Familiar Spirit has long been used among Romancers. It is a spirit whose principal business it seems to be to annoy us, although it sometimes has comforting qualifications. The idea arises out of the fact that those who enjoy things keenly are, by the same token, qualified to suffer keenly.

The country parson speaks of those who suffer extremely by going into an untidy room and says that there are those who experience as much pain in having a tooth filled as others do in losing a limb.

A Frenchman, some time ago, committed suicide for the reason that he was unable to endure being bitten by fleas.

Some persons are so sensitive that they suffer the most excruciating torture from things that would leave others untouched. Often a man is praised for heroism who is simply imperturbable. It is often the custom for those who suffer intensely to look with envy upon the quiescence of those who suffer nothing, but they fail to realize that their ability to suffer is also their ability to enjoy.

A French writer says that we often think of idleness as one of the beatitudes of heaven, while we ought to think of it as one of the miseries of hell. Most of us would rather do anything than to sit still and think of nothing. We are, at such times, annoyed by our Familiar Spirit, who keeps at us as industriously as the vulture kept at the liver of Prometheus.

It is our Familiar Spirit that will not let us chew our cud, or ruminate. If we do not have our faculties employed, they turn upon us and torment us.

One escape from the Familiar Spirit is sleep, as most of us know the pains of wakefulness. It is a fortunate man who is able to sleep when he will. The Duke of Wellington had this capacity. At one time he was told that the guns would not be ready for two hours. "Then," said he, "we had better have a little sleep." He sat down in a trench, leaned his head against its side and was fast asleep in a minute. But it is not everyone of us who can so escape the Familiar Spirit. We must keep hard at work or play or it will be at us and stick pins in us.

The eastern and central part of the state is rich in minerals. Coal, zinc, iron and lead are found, the coal fields covering an acreage of 20,000 square miles.

It is a great agricultural state and apples are produced in abundance.

Other industries are pork packing, milling and manufacturing. There are 10,000 miles of railways in the state.

The state University is at Iowa City and the State College of Agriculture at Ames.

The settlement of Iowa was begun in 1833 when the first land was purchased from the Indians. Territorial government was instituted in 1838.

Iowa was admitted to the Union in 1846.

The state takes its name from the Iowa Indians.

Des Moines is the chief city and the seat of government. Other important cities are Sioux City, Dubuque, Davenport, Burlington, Cedar Rapids, Council Bluffs and Keokuk.

The chief rivers are the Iowa, Cedar, Skunk, Des Moines and Big and Little Sioux.

Theatre Thief Flees When Alarm Sounds

A burglar alarm ringing from inside the T. D. & L. theatre at 5:15 o'clock Sunday morning brought a patrolman from the Glendale police department to the scene. After a quick look around, satisfied there was a thief in the building, he called Captain William A. Loving of the detective bureau, who arrived in a hurry with a squad of officers from headquarters.

On entering the building they found the glass broken in the office door. The trail led to the roof, where the thief had opened a skylight and made good his escape by jumping across to the adjoining room and down a drain pipe. A thorough investigation failed to reveal anything missing, the burglar alarm evidently having surprised the man before he could accomplish anything.

HOME TOWN TALK

BY G. H. WARREN

Glendale Realtor Presents Facts and Figures on City's Prosperity

Following is the five-minute talk made September 18 at the Harvard High school by Gould H. Warren, Glendale realtor, 300 1/2 South Brand, in the contest conducted by the Glendale Realty board in connection with the state contest to take place in Pasadena under the auspices of the California Real Estate association:

MY HOME TOWN

By GOULD H. WARREN

"The Heavens declare the glory of God
The firmament sheweth His handiwork."

Well might the psalmist have stood on the mountain tops above my home town or gazed, transfixed by the beauties of sunset, upon the homing community nestled among the trees at their base and in their bloom.

Here, tucked away at the end of a huge funnel, which is formed by ranges of matchless mountains on the northwest and on the west, throbs the heart of my home town, healthy, wealthy and wise.

Real Prosperity

I need not tell you that my home town is healthy when I say that within the corporate limits of her sixteen square miles dwell 55,000 industrious, thrifty, divinely contented men, women and children; that these 55,000 happy folk clear through their nine banks $4,500,000 each month; that they paved last year fifty-six miles of streets; that building permits consistently approach the million dollar mark each month; that Senora Maria Verdugo, a contemporary of every president of the United States since George Washington and well over one hundred years of age, lives in my home town.

Words are futile to show how healthy we are. Go with me for just a moment "to the hills, whence our strength cometh." All about is a panorama of beauty; sylvan glens, close-packed with exquisite flowers, kissed by sparkling rivulets which rise in springs of clear, cold waters from far back on the white capped peaks to the northeast. Here darts a saucy squirrel and there can be seen our own California mocking bird that pours forth its sweet melody both by night and day.

Rich Back Country

Over in the big end of the funnel lies a back country, unequalled in rich resources. Our back country produced last year $64,000,000 in oil alone and $65,000,000 in citrus fruits. Here is the largest olive grove in California. Chickens and dairy ranches of blue ribbon quality dot the valleys. All this and more, and a jump from an assessed valuation of $9,000,000 in 1920 until today we have an assessed valuation of $47,000,000. More than seventy manufacturing plants have come to us. Transportation facilities are ample. We have four railroads and three bus lines, to say nothing of five main boulevards and highways leading to all parts of the American Continent. Over three hundred trains come into my home town every twenty-four hours.

My home town is not alone healthy and wealthy, but wise in its wisdom. Our men are big men, sun-crowned men, inspirational men, whose sons and daughters are to be found in twenty churches of various denominations.

"Mother" has a wondrous significance in my home town. It would not be otherwise with the bountiful blessings all about. Here she may rear her children, secure in the knowledge that environment and educational facilities are of the best.

Religious Atmosphere

There has been expended nearly a million dollars for new church buildings in the past two years and hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of additions to the present houses of worship are being planned. We have barely completed a new high school unit costing close to $1,000,000 and already plans are being formulated for a junior high school in another section of the city to care for the rapid influx of students. Last year every school in the city had to be enlarged with substantial additions. We have just completed a $275,000 addition for a complete, up-to-the-minute Y. M. C. A. building and the same fifty-five thousand, red-blooded folk that own this as their home oversubscribed it by $25,000. That's a prophecy.

Surely there is no truer wisdom than the jealous care of the character of a city's youth through its schools and Christian institutions.

All from Team Work

I have shown you—Glendale; rich in civic pride and duties well done; rich in virtue, manly youth; rich in nature's bounteous harvest; rich in a faith to do and a will to dare. Glendale is the cynosure of an admiring and admirable nation. Glendale has a luminous future, more vivid (if that were possible) than her past. She is prepared for the thousands yet to come.

"It ain't the individual nor the army as a whole,
But the everlasting team work of every bloomin' soul" that makes my home town, Glendale, "The Fastest Growing City in America."

News Of Glendale Churches

WORLD'S NEED IS TOLD BY PASTOR

New Spirit and Leadership Founded on Gospel of Christ Essential

Rev. C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the First Congregational church, preaching on "What Is the Gospel According to You?" Sunday, said in part:

"The world needs to be shown the way out of its difficulties. The truth of Jesus, which is the Gospel, is the way. The world needs to realize its sins against God and humanity, it needs a new spirit, a new program, new leadership; it needs to know the way of life. Our world needs the gospel of grace, justice, righteousness and peace."

"The Kingdom of God is dependent upon you. God has entrusted you with the responsibility of its advancement. Is your gospel a gospel of history, is it a story only of the past or of something that is to be? Is your gospel a conservatism that would shackle the future to an outworn past or is it a gospel of glad tidings for the future. If we are to live the Christ gospel we must live the Christ life."

MOBILIZE CHURCH FOR YEAR'S WORK

Rev. Edmonds Again Takes Up Pastoral Tasks After Vacation

Sunday was Mobilization Day at the Glendale Presbyterian church, when the forces of the congregation were marshalled in preparation for the work that lies ahead of the pastor and the members for the coming year, in the various branches of the church enterprises. Rev. W. E. Edmonds, the pastor, who was welcomed home by the congregation last Wednesday night, resumed his place in the pulpit yesterday, delivering two sermons. The morning theme was "Bogus Consecration," and that at night was "Good Roads."

Mr. Edwards will address the Wednesday night prayer meeting on "The Unbeliever's Assurance."

Kemp Urges Support For Y.M.C.A. Campaign

Speaking in St. Mark's Episcopal church Sunday morning, Rev. Philip K. Kemp, the rector, stressed the importance of keeping the spiritual life in close contact with Christ. "Man's spiritual life," he declared, "is based on love and service to both God and Man, and one field where this service can best be rendered is in helping the younger generation."

Mr. Kemp strongly urged his congregation to support the drive for the Y. M. C. A. building that is now in progress, offering an abundant opportunity to aid the rising generation.

ADVENTISTS FOR 'Y'

Glendale Seventh Day Adventists are heartily supporting the Y. M. C. A. drive, now in progress, and at the church meeting last night it was unanimously voted to raise $1,000 for a room in the Y. M. C. A. dormitory. Report of this action of the church people was made this morning by the pastor, Elder R. W. Parmelee.

AT CASA VERDUGO

Rev. J. C. Livingston, pastor of Casa Verdugo Methodist church, conducted both services yesterday, preaching on "Our God Who Is Everywhere" in the morning and on "Getting Something for Nothing" at night. Special music was furnished by the choir at both services.

KRINGLE PREACHES

Rev. Henry O. Kringle, pastor of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran church at North Isabel and California streets, yesterday morning dealt with "The Conversion of a Sinner to God." The Bible class took up the study of part of Luke's gospel.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Matter" was the theme for both services at the Christian Science church at Maryland and California avenues yesterday. The regular testimonial meeting will be held Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

NELSON'S SERMON

"Jehovah's Rallying Cry" was the topic of Rev. M. Grant Nelson's sermon Sunday morning at the Atwater Park Baptist church, and at night he took up "Christ's Challenge to Young People."

Rev. O. O. Bernstein Is Speaker to Adventists

At the Seventh Day Adventist church in Eagle Rock, Rev. O. O. Bernstein spoke Saturday morning, basing his discourse on John 9:31: "Now we know that God heareth not sinners; but any man may be a worshipper of God, and doeth His will, him He heareth." "It is true," Rev. Bernstein said, "that God does not hear the unrepentant sinner; but the prayer of the penitent sinner is never offered in vain. The texts in the Bible assure us of this. Here is one (Prov. 28:13), which says: 'He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whose confesseth them and forsaketh them shall find mercy.' Too often we try to cover our sins, and we flatter ourselves that we are getting by with our neighbors and friends, but we find that we are not prospering spiritually; God does not hear our prayers. It is not our business to cover our sins; that is God's business. If we cover our sins God will uncover them; but if we uncover our sins by repentance and confession, God will cover them. God always answers our prayers in the affirmative. He may say 'No' to your request, but when He does so, He had heard and answered your prayer just as truly as if He had said 'Yes.'"

Rev. Bernstein left Glendale last night on a trip east, during which he will visit his former home in New Jersey and attend the fall council of the Adventist general conference, which convenes in October. He will return about November 1.

McGillis, on behalf of the members, presented them with a purse of nearly $100. Tonight the Millikans will be honored at a birthday dinner at the home of their other son, E. C. Millikan, 512 West Wilson avenue.

Wednesday night Mr. Cole will deliver the next of his travelogue, based on his recent European trip, taking as his subject for this lecture, "Holland," which will be illustrated with fifty stereoscopic slides.

HOLLAND IS SUBJECT

Rev. C. A. Cole, pastor of the Central Christian church, has a most interesting travel lecture arranged for Wednesday night at the church. Following the service at 8 o'clock, he will talk on "Holland," illustrating his talk with a collection of pictures loaned by the University of California.

TELLS NEED FOR CHURCH ACTIVITY

Rev. E. Ford Prepares Way For Annual Canvass For Year's Budget

In preparation for the Every Member Canvass that is to be held Sunday, September 28, Rev. E. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist church, spoke yesterday morning on "The Joy of Partnership," stressing the importance of a close association of the members of God's church with Him in fostering His work on earth through the instrumentality of the church.

The church budget for the coming year will be taken up by the First Baptist congregation next Sunday, and Mr. Ford's sermon yesterday had as its object the presentation of the duty that rests on the members to participate freely in the tasks ahead of them.

At night Mr. Ford spoke on "Good Workmanship."

Pastor Gives Reasons For Being Christian

Dr. H. C. Funk, pastor of the First Lutheran church, gave "Four Reasons Why a Man Should Be a Christian" at his service yesterday morning. The first reason given was "Because it would be the greatest act of disloyalty to refuse to be a Christian." As the second reason, Dr. Funk's opinion was based upon the fact that the Christian religion has withstood all the assaults of its enemies throughout all the centuries. The superiority of Christian principles and life over all other ethical or religious teachings was given as the third reason.

And the fourth reason cited was a practical one, "Because it pays. Christianity is a religion of hope. Moreover, there is none other name under heaven, given among men, whereby we must be saved."

Continues Course of Instruction on Bible

The course of study in the Bible was continued yesterday by the young people's class at the Gospel Tabernacle, under the leadership of Rev. C. H. Christman, yesterday's subject being "The Proof of the Inspiration of the Bible by Fulfilled Prophecy." Mr. Christman also preached at morning and evening services, his subjects being "What the Holy Spirit Wishes to Be to the Believer" and "Thou Hast a Name That Thou Livest and Thou Art Dead," a continuation of his studies of the letters to the churches in Revelations.

When you require the services of a modern transfer and storage company, either to store your goods, to move them, or in any of the many ways it can be of help to you, we will endeavor to make the transaction a quick and pleasant one. While such a policy is characteristic of all members of the Pacific Furniture Warehousemen's association and we by no means hold a patent on courtesy, at the same time that little ounce of attention counts."

COMMUNITY LOYALTY—COMMUNITY LOYALTY—COMMUNITY LOYALTY—COMMUNITY SERVICE—COMMUNITY SERVICE—COMMUNITY LOYALTY—COMMUNITY LOYALTY—COMMUNITY LOYALTY

No Community of consequence can be built up without trade.

COMMUNITY CO-OPERATION

Money spent outside of Glendale can never add to Glendale's wealth or importance.

Realizing the Great Community Development Truth that a City Grows exactly as its Business and Merchandising Institutions Grow, these firms have given their hearty endorsement to the movement for co-operation between Glendale merchants and Glendale consumers

All Should Unite in Program of Community Building

There are few of us who are not proud of Glendale, and of every element and factor that lead to its further growth and importance. It is strange that so many people have a pride in the home community and yet take an impersonal view of the things vital to the existence of the city. "They" have done this and "they" should do that is the way the advancement.

You may not be able to do any of the big spectacular things that mean a long step forward in Community development and influence, but there are obligations and duties that are of great consequence in which all can unite.

Everyone spends some money and everyone who wants to see Glendale grow in population and influence should see to it that as much of this money as possible stays in Glendale and helps to build up the Community.

The assertion that money spent with home merchants helps the home town has become so hackneyed that many people, when they see the statement, do not read or analyze further. They think it some scheme of the merchants to get more business. It takes but little reasoning, however, to establish the fact that no Community can be built up without trade, and that money spent outside of Glendale can never do Glendale any good.

We (not they) can make Glendale a still greater city if we (not they) unite to build up our local business concerns and industries and let outside communities take care of themselves.

Glendale's superior advantages have attracted a class of people who want the best and who are accustomed to have it. The merchants represented on this page have long since established themselves on a plane where they can please this class of trade, and now they do not hesitate to ask for local patronage. Let Us (not them) keep our money in Glendale.

ANNIVERSARY OF GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Keim Receive Congratulations
On Happy Event

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Keim of 342 West California street is being celebrated at the family residence today, relatives and friends having gathered from various points to help celebrate the occasion.

Mrs. Keim came to California from Portland, Ore., with her parents and sisters and brothers, when she was six weeks of age, the family first settling in Humboldt county, in the northern part of this state. Living at that place until she was 4 years old, the family moved to Healdsburg, and Mrs. Keim is able to recount some hair-raising incidents with the Indians.

Her father, the late L. D. Beckett, with his wife and family of twelve children, made the trip from Humboldt county to Healdsburg by pack train, and during the trip she and other children in the party were hidden in a wheat field from the Indians, who had already killed one member of the party. During the time this trip was made there was no wagon road, all mail being carried by horseback. Mrs. Keim relates these incidents in a manner as clear as if they had happened yesterday instead of sixty-three years ago.

Comes From Indiana
Mr. Keim came to California from Miami county, near Wabash, Ind., at the age of 8 years, and made the trip with his parents in steamers used in those days. Mrs. Keim says that there were twenty-one people in the party that left Indiana, and they were called the "Indiana Crew." It taking them twenty-one days to make the trip, and nowadays the trip can be made in four days at the most.

Fifty years ago today, Miss Permelia Beckett of Salinas, Monterey county, was united in marriage with Daniel T. Keim of Marin county, near Petaluma, the wedding being solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. D. Beckett. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lovell, pastor of the Methodist church, September 22, 1874.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Keim went to Marin county, where they engaged in farming for four months, and in January, 1875, moved to a place two and one-half miles south of Santa Ana, where they resided. They lived at Tustin, Orange county, for a period of sixteen years, later moving to Chino, San Bernardino county, to reside for six years, and later moving to Los Angeles, where the home was established for ten years. For the past eleven years Mr. and Mrs. Keim have been residents of Glendale, living during this time at 342 West California street, where they built their home.

Three Children Survive

Mr. and Mrs. Keim are 73 and 67 years of age, respectively, the former having been born March 5, 1851, and the latter May 31, 1857. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Keim three of whom are still living. Two sons, Ellis, who passed away at the age of 18 months, and Wilbur, the eldest, passed away when he was 33 years old. The three children living are Mrs. Sarah E. Thomas and Miss Mary A. Keim, both of whom reside with their parents, and Mrs. Della McClellan of La Verne. There are three grandchildren, Ellis Thomas of Glendale, Lorraine Keim of Los Angeles, Wilbur McClellan of La Verne, and a great granddaughter, Doris Jean Thomas, thus making four generations present at the gathering today.

Many Congratulations

Many gifts and tokens of love and congratulations have been received by the happy couple, and this afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock the invited guests called to wish them many more years on the pathway of life together. From 7:30 until 9:30 o'clock this evening guests will also be entertained. Mr. Keim has been engaged in the past twenty years, and previous to that was engaged in farming.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Sept. 22.—A warrant for the arrest of Margie Dubril, who burned her way out of jail here recently, has been sworn out by Chief John H. Long of the police department. The warrant charges her with destroying public property.

Miss Dubril was caught in company with a couple of young men what was claimed to have been a stolen automobile. One of the young men is being held on a charge of grand larceny. The girl is said to be a cabaret singer in normal life, but somewhat of a holy terror when she gets on the way. It is said that she had to be handcuffed when taken to the Los Angeles sheriff's office, and that she came near playing havoc with a newspaper man's camera when the latter endeavored to transfer her likeness to a photographic plate.

Church Campaign

The Presbyterian church is preparing a big campaign of activity for the coming year, along numerous lines of work, it is announced. One of the first things in a preparatory way is the annual social canvass which will be conducted on September 28. October 5 will be homecoming or rally day and October 12 will be Communion Sunday.

San Jose avenue from San Fernando boulevard to Fourth street is being plowed up as the first step in the paving of the street, with its accompaniments of curbing and sidewalks. This is one of the few streets in the business part of the city which has not

Hornberger, 'Irish Tenor'

COLIN O'MORE, the famous grand opera singer, who sings the haunting Irish songs for the phonograph records, is known as JAMES HERROD HORNBERGER in real life, according to the papers in his wife's divorce suit.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Irish now have something else to fight about. "Colin O'More, Irish tenor," sweet singer in grand opera and on the phonograph, stands revealed as plain James Herrod Hornberger.

This fact was revealed in supreme court here, when the judge granted a motion to discontinue first action for divorce, which his wife, Madeline, brought.

The rift in the Hornberger happiness occurred a year ago. Mrs. Hornberger charged the man who has sung the role of unfaithful lover in "Madame Butterfly" time after time, with misconduct with an unidentified woman. Hornberger denied the charge.

Hornberger, it is said, earns $10,000 a year on a royalty basis from his records.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Sept. 22.—The contest for president of the Chamber of Commerce is creating keen rivalry among four candidates, of whom C. W. Young heads the list, according to an official check, with H. H. Maxson second, Page Noll third and Emil Swanson fourth.

These four men, all of whom have been prominent in Chamber of Commerce work here, were endorsed on tickets drawn up last week by the Citizens' committee and the Merchants' Association. The second ballot was mailed today to Chamber of Commerce members and the final count will be made on the second Monday in October. Twelve directors will be selected from the twenty-four who received the highest vote in the preliminary ballot, the highest of all becoming president.

Endorses Ticket
The Eagle Rock Realty board held a special meeting last week, at which the following ticket was endorsed:

C. W. Young, Emil Swanson, A. S. Wilson, B. S. Cotner, W. T. Ward, Dr. J. C. Shedd, H. G. Warren, C. L. Suits, H. H. Maxson, Clancy Pearl, O. F. Kroehle, Dr. M. M. Null, R. L. Woodhouse, J. T. Bailey.

In endorsing these candidates the Realty board considered the extreme importance of an active board of directors, declaring such a board to be virtually the voice of the people before the Los Angeles City Council; that they are in fact a small council of representatives for the taxpayers and all interested in maintaining a beautiful homeland.

Train Children

More than 1000 school children will be trained to take part in the brilliant pageant to be presented on the campus at Occidental college October 17 and 18, for the benefit of the P-T-A. milk fund. The pageant is being sponsored by Section F, of the P-T-A. federation and will include children from twenty-six schools.

Misses Pearl and Ruby Jones from Chicago are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Holquist, of Sierra Vista drive. The Misses Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Holquist and Mr. Stanley Jones recently motored to San Diego and Tijuana.

heretofore fallen before the advance of progress. However, it will now not be long until this street will be opened and paved from the boulevard to Sunset Canyon drive.

Mrs. Russel Wickersham, principal of the Joaquin Miller school, who has been ill for a number of days, and seriously so at one time, is improved.

FROM SUNLAND

SUNLAND, Sept. 22.—Promises of all possible aid by the county supervisors, represented by H. W. Wright, in improving North street as a reduced-grade route from the bed of the Tujunga wash to the floor of the Tujunga valley were reported at the last meeting of the Sunland Chamber of Commerce by Joe Spencer, chairman of the committee. North street follows an easier grade than the present state highway. The committee has been instructed to get the necessary rights-of-way for the work.

O. Hyde reported that rights-of-way along the Lazy Lonesome ranch road have been promised by Mr. Barnhart wherever the road touches his property. Other property owners along the road have evinced a willingness to give up to sixty feet for the purpose of widening the road to the junction of Roscoe road.

Membership dues in the Sunland Chamber of Commerce were reduced from $5 per year to $2 per year on a motion by Mr. Hyde, seconded by Mr. Nottage. A membership drive will be made.

A committee has been appointed to urge the county forestry officials to hire another caretaker for Monte Vista park, the increasing crowds having made it a difficult job for one man.

The Sunland La Follette club will hold a meeting tonight in Monte Vista park or the school auditorium, according to the weather, at 8 o'clock. Lewis W. Penn and others will speak. Mrs. Harry Rice, wife of Fire Chief Rice, is reported very much improved from a recent illness.

Mrs. Bill Taylor has returned from a trip to Denver. Herb Brandstetter, Paul Lancaster, Ray Megall and several other local men have been on the fire-fighting front at Monrovia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Clark of Morgan road recently entertained at their home with a family dinner. Among those present were: Mrs. Emma Clark Gillum, Sumnerland; Mrs. Zella Clark Manuel, Calexico; John Clark, Mrs. Edith Clark Bellman and daughter, Mary Anne, Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel McVine have been on a motor trip to Bishop.

Mrs. L. A. Wakefield has been visiting friends in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Jean Snow has returned to San Diego, after spending a few days in Sunland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murray of Eldora street plan to spend the winter in Arizona.

Mrs. George Shaffer of Walnut drive recently entertained as her house guest Mrs. Wickersham, who has returned to Los Angeles. Miss Adams of Toronto has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Blumfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloodgood and daughter Yvonne have accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimpel on a motor trip to British Columbia by the coast route.

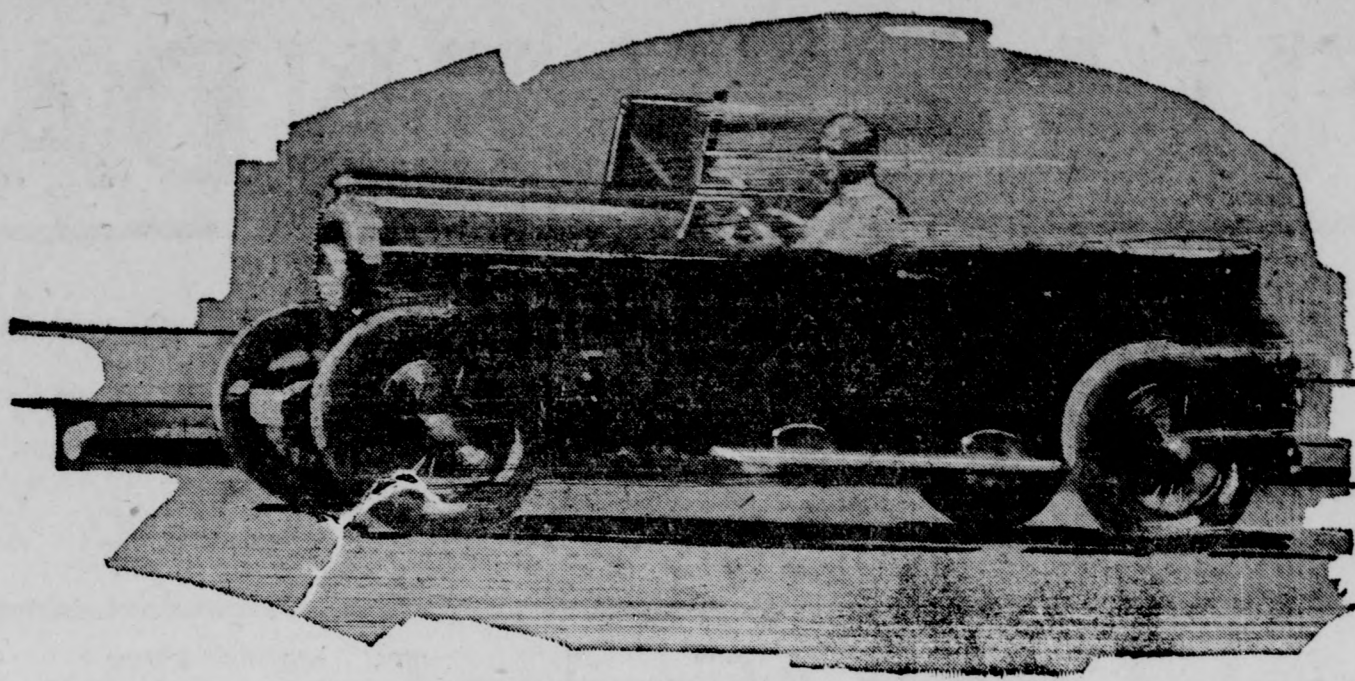

Mrs. C. M. McDonald is assistant postmaster at the Sunland office. Alfred Stevens has charge of the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Waddell and four children have arrived from Florida and are staying at the home of Mrs. Waddell's mother, Mrs. L. E. Swaney.

A new telephone directory is just off the press for the Sunland Rural Telephone Co. The new edition includes the names of subscribers in the Ora Vista, formerly Hansen Heights, district.

A move is being made by leading spirits of Sunland to have a swimming pool built in or near Monté Vista park.

A recently constructed airplane has a double seat for the aviators, to enable them to relieve one another.

SIXTEEN hours of speed! Two Indianapolis races rolled into one! One thousand miles with a wide open throttle, one thousand miles in one thousand and seven minutes with a car absolutely stock to the last bolt and nut.

That's what Chrysler did last week on Fresno track with Ralph DePalma at the wheel. No other stock car in California ever made such a record for endurance.

Speed was not what we were endeavoring to show. Chrysler's speed is unquestioned today in California, though the car has been on the market but six months. But a thousand miles of speed tells another story,—that of amazing endurance.

Did you ever drive your car at sixty miles an hour? If you did, you know it is a terrific strain for the average car to make this speed. You can feel that the motor is working far beyond its normal limit. Yet Chrysler, with the identical motor—pistons, connecting rods, oiling system and with the same gear ratio that you buy in a Chrysler from our salesroom floor, averaged almost sixty miles an hour for more than sixteen solid hours.

It is one thing to show a spurt of speed for a mile or so. It is quite another thing to hold that speed for a thousand miles. The first takes power alone,—the second takes power PLUS endurance. We showed Chrysler power on Mt. Wilson when Chrysler took two minutes off the former record. We believe Chrysler's performance on Fresno track demonstrated with equal force the surpassing endurance that the car likewise possesses.

LISTEN. Do you think a car with destructive vibration in the motor could stand a thousand miles at almost sixty miles an hour? Do you think a car with anything but a perfect oiling and ignition system could stand the strain of a thousand miles with a wide open throttle? Do you think anything but a perfect cooling system could keep a motor cool at its utmost effort for more than sixteen hours under temperatures that reached as high as 102 degrees?

Isn't it logical to believe that a stock car that can stand practically sixty miles an hour for more than sixteen hours has endurance, reserve ability, and a perfection of design to permit it to stand up under normal usage longer than any car you have ever driven?

Chrysler Six is no ordinary car. It has definite engineering improvements that place it far in advance of the average car on the market today. On Mt. Wilson and Fresno track we have proved it to the world of motoring in spectacular fashion. We'd like to make a PERSONAL proof to you, with your hand on the wheel and your foot on the throttle.

Won't you come in today?

Glendale Motor Car Co.

Colorado at Orange

Here is what Chrysler's amazing performance on Fresno track would mean if measured on the map of California:

Averaging 59.54 miles an hour would mean that if DePalma had left Los Angeles at six in the morning, he would have been in Fresno before ten. He would have been in San Francisco about seven minutes of one.

If he had come back by the Coast Route, he would have been in Los Angeles again by 8:17 p.m. Keeping on down the Coast Road, he would have been in San Diego in two hours and twelve minutes, yet he would still lack eleven miles of having covered the same distance he did at Fresno with the Chrysler.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, Sept. 22.—

Work on Montrose avenue has stopped as the county has ordered the scraper removed, whether the work will be resumed at an early date is not known. Work on Los Angeles avenue is now under way, crews cleaning up the weeds at the sides of this boulevard it is expected the work of paving, putting in gutters and curbs on the street to Tujunga boulevard or the old Verdugo Road will go ahead, making a short cut through the valley running north and south. The full width of Los Angeles is to be paved, according to the petition before the supervisors.

The Odd Fellows of Verdugo Hills district met Friday night in the Verdugo City Hall, the auditorium of which is 40 by 60 and has been approved by grand lodge officials for this purpose. The newly organized order is to be known as the Verdugo Hills lodge I. O. O. F. and will represent the entire district from Flintridge to Sunland. L. E. Thompson is chairman pro tem and Mr. Lang of Highway Highlands temporary secretary.

Another quarry is to be opened on the Balridge ranch, the new firm being the Granite Rock Co., of Los Angeles who have a large contract to supply the rock for the repair work in connection with the flood control along the Los Angeles river. A large steamshovel is on the job and as it steamed up with crude oil many have been under the impression there was a fire on the south end of Los Angeles street.

With the close of the first week of school in the La Crescenta Valley the enrollment for the Montrose and La Crescenta schools is 509 as against 309 a year ago. One hundred and fifty-three are in the Montrose school and 356 in the Los Angeles avenue school. The increased enrollment has necessitated the board adding another teacher to the faculty making forty-five teachers in the valley as against six teachers three years ago. Arrangements are being made for bus transportation for children living in the extreme north end of the valley in the Briggs district, that is, if the present arrangements are carried out the children will be carried to school at 10 cents each to the parent, anything over this the school board will pay. A new film screen has been made for the auditorium, the school cafeteria is now in full working order under the management of Mrs. Peck who had charge of the department last year.

Mrs. Nina Richards is home again after spending a delightful week at the Southern California Association of Veterans at the encampment on the Palos Verdes.

Applications for burning brush may still be procured at the Mead service station in Montrose, also at Wade's station at the corner of Honolulu and Pennsylvania avenues. Fires in the main residential districts will be taken care of by the new Captain Duncan who has arrived from Oklahoma and is at present residing on Manhattan street east of the wash. In the matter of brush and hill fires, Captain Duncan will be assisted by Deputy County Fire Wardens Mead and Johnson.

Forests of Jamaica produce mahogany, cedar, satinwood, rosewood and logwood.

Police Searching for Girls Dressed as Boys

The police are on the lookout for two girls, aged 12 and 16, dressed as boys, who stopped a car on Los Feliz road at 8 o'clock Saturday night and got a ride to San Fernando road. At first the driver believed they were boys but their girlish voices soon betrayed them. They said they were going to San Francisco. When they got out at San Fernando road, the driver told a policeman and told him about the episode. Headquarters was notified and detectives put on the trail of the girls, but Lieutenant W. J. Royle reports that the trail of the girls has evidently been lost. Police of other cities have been advised to keep a sharp lookout for them.

Great Crowd Greet Flyers at San Diego

ern California to greet them, bel-lowed up their cries of welcome.
San Diego's applause was significant of the plaudits of the nation.
Hardly a minute later, after the flyers were first sighted, the three "Magellans of the air" were sailing over San Diego, headed straight as a stretched string for North Island, their landing place.
Then, suddenly, in almost uniform formation, the three cruisers nosed sharply toward the earth and came sailing up the fairway to a halt between hangars numbers 3 and 4.

As the three planes came to a stop it was the cue for a renewed outbreak of howling from the crowd of 5,000 people assembled at the field to witness the landing of the planes. The crowd was expected to number 30,000, but only about one-sixth that number were present owing to the fact that the planes arrived some two hours ahead of schedule.

The cheering had never ceased since the flyers first flew into view, but this time it seemed more vigorous than any previous demonstration. Every person on the island and in San Diego and Coronado let forth all the noise they possessed. The people shouted, automobile horns sounded, factory whistles shrieked and boats along the waterfront added to the chorus of noise with their whistles. The demonstration continued indefinitely as the crowd stormed and milled about the field, each anxious for a better glimpse of the intrepid flyers.
Military and civilian police gave it up as a hopeless task in trying to control the surging mob.

Greeted by Parents
Smith was the first flyer to step to earth, and as he did so he rushed to the waiting arms of his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs.
Jasper Smith of Los Angeles, who had come here especially to greet their son, who smothered him with hugs and kisses.

"My boy!" Mrs. Smith was heard to say as she embraced her famous son.
Lieutenant Smith did not answer, but gathered his mother up in his arms and returned her kisses, turning to his father and embracing him.

But Lieutenant Smith was not the only one of the flyers welcomed by his family. Mrs. Robert Chase Harding, also of Los Angeles, welcomed her son, Lieutenant John Harding, mechanic for Lieutenant Eric Nelson, with fervent kisses and embraces. The meeting of the flyers with their families brought tears to the eyes of onlookers.

Meets His "Pals"
As soon as Lieutenant Smith had been welcomed by his parents, other flyers, his old time wing mates of North Island, rushed toward him, each anxious to be the first to congratulate him. When he saw these "pals" and realized his work was all but done, a smile came to Lieutenant Smith's face, but tears—tears of gladness—were in his eyes. He must have felt happy at knowing he had won a battle with the elements around the globe. But the smile on Lieutenant Smith's face was not one he wore away from Santa Monica last March. Then it was that of a much older man.

The trials as commander of the first flight around the world have left their mark upon Lieutenant Smith.

"We're tired, but happy, and mighty glad to be home again," Lieutenant Smith was heard to say when, with the aid of brother officers, he and the other flyers fought their way through the crowd to general headquarters, a few yards away. "At times it looked like a losing battle, but we finally pulled through," he added.

Task Is Done
When the three planes landed here they were a few yards past the line from where they took off last March, before leaving Santa Monica the next day, and in reality their task was done. They had crossed the imaginary line they were stringing around the world!

As soon as the flyers and their mechanics were given a breathing spell they were escorted to an especially constructed stand near hangar which opened with a prayer by the chaplain of Fort Rosecrans.
This was to be opened by addresses of welcome by George Mayme, representing the city, Admiral A. H. Robertson on behalf of the navy, and by Major S. W.
Fitzgerald on behalf of the army.

At the conclusion of this program the six birdmen were whisked by automobile to the stadium in San Diego where a throng of 50,000 persons, 20,000 of them being school children, accorded them further welcome.
At this ceremony each of the flyers were presented with handsome silver service sets, gifts of San Diego. As Lieutenant Smith has long considered San Diego his home, it is planned to purchase for him a residence here. Tonight the flyers will be honor guests at a banquet here.

But one thing marred the arrival of the triumphant aviators.
That was the absence of Major Frederick Martin, former commander of the flight, whose plane was wrecked during a heavy fog on an Alaskan mountain peak.

Chicago Has Coming Girl Athletic Champ

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—In little have a potential woman champion for future amateur athletic contests. In the Business Men's meet recently the girl won the broad jump, javelin throw, 100-yard low hurdles, 60-yard high hurdles and 100-yard dash. She finished second in each of the other three events—the hop-step-and-jump, the high jump and the discus throw.

ALL-DAY BATTLE IN BIG 'Y' DRIVE

Workers to Double Efforts
So That Campaign Will Be Successful

while necessary, affect only the material well-being?

Need Quick Action
"We may boast and boost as we please, but Glendale will forever be stigmatized by failure to give $275,000 to assure proper care of our greatest asset, the boys and girls of our homes. We will get some very undesirable noticity if we prove so lacking in concern of our youth and we will get some exceedingly valuable and desirable city advertising if, by cooperative effort today and tomorrow we raise the remainder of this $275,000 objective. The time has come for every right-thinking man and woman and every loyal citizen of Glendale to arouse themselves and do what they can to help achieve full success on schedule time tomorrow night."

The total of $136,005 more is needed to win the campaign in Glendale for a city Y. M. C. A.
The sum of $22,120 was reported at noon today, which, together with the $16,048.50 reported Saturday night brings the aggregate amount subscribed to $138,995.
This sum represents over 50 per cent of the $275,000 goal, and has been contributed by 918 persons.

Delay Dangerous
It is apparent that if the rest of the citizens make proportionate gifts the full sum will be attained. But it demands quick action. Delay now is dangerous and will defeat the project. Subscriptions are all made conditional on the full $275,000 being subscribed. This provision was made in justice to those contributing.
Those approached give on the basis of the required $275,000 being fully subscribed by united support of the citizens and not with the expectation of giving such amount if only a portion of the needed amount is pledged.
Those giving are protected and no pledge is binding unless the movement meets with mutual support from a sufficient number to assure the completion of the building free from indebtedness.
The proposition, therefore, now confronting Glendale is to subscribe $136,005 additional to the $22,120 now conditionally offered. Is Glendale equal to the task? This is the acid test of Glendale's resourcefulness.
While the condition leaves until November 1 to raise the balance, experience has shown that there is little accomplished after the close of the organized effort. The only assurance of Glendale getting its Y. M. C. A. building is through an heroic effort and sacrificial giving bridging the gap by tomorrow night. We repeat, is Glendale equal to the task?

Issues Proclamation Mayor Robinson, sensing the importance and seriousness of the situation, has issued a proclamation designating tomorrow as "Y.
M. C. A. Day" and calling upon the citizens generally to make cooperative effort to score a big, significant Glendale victory.

Other cities all over this state are watching the outcome of the campaign here. Confidence has been freely expressed in the ability of Glendale to take its place on the Y. M. C. A. map. An official bulletin issued at the national headquarters in New York carries the result of the campaign here to every other Y. M. C. A. city in America. Glendale "will shine" if every citizen acts immediately.

Those willing to help in this crisis are urged to call on the campaign phone, Glendale 130, and a worker will call or the subscription may be made over the phone. There is not time enough to see everybody who should be seen. Much valuable time has been wasted in calls where the person desired was not there. Only prompt action will save the day.

"We must resolve ourselves into a committee of the whole," said David Black, vice chairman of the campaign executive committee, when seen at the campaign headquarters this morning, "this is the responsibility of every man or woman who cares. Many friends of our boys and girls and stalwart advocates of 'selling Glendale to the world' must give and get others to give. A man's responsibility does not end with his personal gift, he should undertake to get others to sign."

All Day Campaign Registering the earnestness of the campaign workers is the plan to give practically all day tomorrow to the work of solicitation.
All the men and women who can do so are meeting at a campaign breakfast tomorrow at 7:45. A menu consisting of fruit, cereal, bacon, eggs, toast and coffee will be served complimentary to those present by the campaign executive committee assisted by the ladies of the Glendale Presbyterian church, where the breakfast is to be served. Campaign Director Mogge will be in charge.

The workers will report at noon tomorrow at a luncheon rally and the final report is scheduled for 9 o'clock at the church headquarters and will be open to the public. The Saturday night session of the campaigners was well attended and the enthusiasm of the occasion increased by a delegation from Los Angeles and Hollywood made up of Robert M. Allen, a member of the Los Angeles city council; W. T. B. Campbell, a prominent realtor of Hollywood; W. M. Pargellis, certified public accountant and member of the committee of management of the Los Angeles Central Y. M. C. A.; C. Fletcher Quillen, well-known attorney and dean of the Y. M.

C. A. law school, and the following leading secretaries from Los Angeles Y. M. C. A.: Harry P.
Henderson, general secretary;
George Gleason, director of religious work and formerly secretary of the Y at Kobe, Japan; A. P.
Watts, financial secretary; Robert H. Kee, executive secretary of the Central Branch; A. H. Maxwell, secretary of the Whittier Boulvard branch; Clinton Bay, director of educational work, and E.
J. Cottrell, membership secretary.

Divisional Honors
The "Live Yers" again won divisional honors and as a result Manager Jim Newton continued to wear the "high" hat. His aggregation reported $5458 for the day; the "Bear Cats" had $4470; the
"Go-Getters" $3200, and the "T N T Gang" $2920.

"Bear Cat" W. H. Barnes captured the stellar honors among the twenty-team captains Saturday night. The team report of $1590 won the "Spizzintinkum" cup for the day and gave Captain Barnes the privilege of posting the big, electrically illuminated campaign clock. He was cheered to the echo as he swung the big indicator to the $116,000 mark.
Team 14, Captain Roy Kent, is holding on to first place with total production closely followed by team 4, Captain T. A. Wright, team 3, Captain Barnes and team 12, Captain George Bentley.

A feature of Saturday night's rally was the induction of the blue star degree in the Order of Spizzintinkum campaigners whose individual production had passed the $2000 mark. These were J.
Park Arnold, Frank L. Fox, James
A. Newton, George H. Bentley and Dr. J. K. Glickerson. Red stars for $1000 attainment were granted Dr. John Anderson, Dr. R. C.
Logan, Rev. Clifford A. Cole, W.
R. Vanderwood, Emil O. Kiefer, Preston L. Hatch, E. L. Schuyler, and A. R. Eastman. Thirty-seven campaign salesmen have now been elected for meritorious performance in action.

The women of the Pacific Avenue Methodist Episcopal church and Broadway Methodist church, South, served the Saturday evening dinner. They were Mrs. B.
Wilson, Mrs. S. Tronsier, Mrs. M.
Stevens, Mrs. H. Adams, Miss Hor-

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Jack Dempsey is seriously intent upon getting into a big money battle next summer. It's a cinch he will show in 1925.

This year he had sufficient money and bright enough prospects to make it unnecessary for him to undergo the hard work of training for a fight. But now, when it seems clear that, while his movie venture will return a profit, Valentino and Gloria Swanson, the outlook has altered.

In fact, no long lines have been blocking the box offices where Dempsey's new nose is being shown, even granting he is not so raw, at that.

This being so, by next summer the desire for big money will have been honed to a razor edge.
Who will be the unlucky opponent? No one knows just now.
But the writer is guessing right here and now that it won't be Wills. Wait and see if this isn't the truth.

Anyway, no matter whom Dempsey elects to fight, he will have to prepare. He would be foolish to go into the ring with two years of inactivity back of him.
All of which is as clear to Jack and his manager as to anyone else. So all the chances are that Jack will accept a comparatively small sum for a winter indoor fight somewhere in New York under Rickard's management.

New York is echoing what the gossip says that Gibbons will be the contender. Rickard has a contract with him for a fight against an opponent to be named and Tommy himself is eager for another crack at the champion.

In the meantime a Wills-Renault go seems to be cooking up.
Talk is that both men have already signed, but that this fact is being kept secret until the preliminaries can be ballyhooed.

SPORT WISDOM

By WALTER CAMP
Special Correspondent of The Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Were the coach at Cornell any other than Gilmour Dobie, one might be pardoned for skepticism as to Cornell's chance of having a backfield that could compare with the last year's eleven, which has lost that star trio, Pfann, Ramsey and Cassidy. But there is hope for Cornell, for Dobie has never failed to develop backfield stars wherever he goes.

When Dobie was coaching out on the Pacific coast, he made a record quite unsurpassed, basing his development of a team on the attack knew where the play was going and if each man did his job thoroughly and correctly, with mathematical timing and precision, the defense could not possibly prevent gains of ten yards in four downs. And it worked.

At the naval academy, Dobie found his backfield material too slow. Before he got through he brought up to New York a navy team which won over the army, and it was the fastest striking backfield seen in the east.

Since he has been at Cornell, Dobie has developed some powerful, heady, striking backs, whose characteristic was that same speed in getting to the opening and ability to take advantage of that opening and keep going. Last year's brilliant trio has gone the way of all football players, but who shall say that Dobie will not bring forth another good crop?

To start with, he has Patterson of last year's backfield, and some of last year's substitute material in Tilton, Wolland and Webster. Then there is Molinet, last year's freshman full back; Munns, a scion of the other Munns who have made gridiron names at Cornell, and Hockelman, whom he used at quarter.

For the line, Dobie is in pretty good shape, having his old ends, Henderson and Kneen; Affeld for center; Morris for left guard and Kearney for left tackle.

George Pfann is to be his assistant and everyone grants that Pfann knows a lot about backfield work. Dobie also has Hunt for his lineman, as well as Hanson to assist him in the coaching.

TUJUNGA NOTES

An athletic club with a fully equipped gymnasium building is being planned by the Tujunga Kiwanis club. A committee consisting of Don S. Wiseman, M. F. Gilmer, J. Q. McDonald and Bruce Anawalt has been appointed to work out details of the plan.
Monte Vista post, No. 250, American Legion, has offered the use of a part of the property owned by the post at El Centro and Sunset boulevard for a gymnasium building. Memberships will be sold by the Kiwanis club, to be classified in two or three separate groups, according to ages. Boy Scouts will be accepted as honorary members and one night each week will be devoted to their activities.

A four-piece orchestra will play for the Women's club dance at the Garden of the Moon pavilion tonight.

started September 15. It was announced by Morgan G. Hoggs, assistant superintendent of the

SMALLPOX

"August 12th. The people die so that now it seems they are fair to carry the dead to the burial by day-light, the nights not sufficing to do it in. And Lord Mayor commands people to be within at nine at night, as they say, that the sick may have liberty to go abroad for air."

"August 16th. Thence I walked to the Tower; but, Lord! empty the streets are and melancholy, so many poor, sick people in the streets full of sores; and so many sad stories overheard as I walk, everybody talking of this dead, and that man sick, and so many in that place, and so many in that. And they tell me that, in Westminster, there is never a physician and but one apothecary left, all being dead; but there are great hopes of a great decrease this week. God send it!"—Samuel Pepys.

Pepys wrote this part of his diary during the great plague of smallpox in London in 1665. I give it because it is a vivid picture of the times when smallpox was as common as measles and often came in great plagues and would nearly destroy whole nations.

According to the anti-vaccinationists, it is our improved sanitation that has caused the decrease in smallpox. Within the last two or three years, smallpox has been increasing to the extent that we are having some pretty severe epidemics, and it is assuming a more virulent type. Many people have died. Sanitation has steadily improved, so obviously there is something besides sanitation that prevents smallpox. That something is the immunity conferred by vaccination.

Due to indifference and to anti-vaccinationists, a large portion of our population is now unvaccinated. History shows that when this happens, smallpox again begins to be active. Many hygienists believe that we are due to have a widespread epidemic unless precautions are taken and vaccination resumed.

Scientific physicians, as a class, believe that vaccination protects. We have held that belief for more than 100 years. One of the things that is sometimes said against us is that we change our beliefs, therefore there is no "science" in medicine. (The fact that we do change our beliefs when the advance of knowledge warrants it, shows that medicine is a science rather than not.) Because we physicians have held this belief that vaccination protects against smallpox so long shows that it must have a very stable foundation.

There is no natural immunity against smallpox. Anyone is liable to contract it upon exposure—known or unknown—unless he has developed an immunity by having the disease before or unless he has had cowpox (vaccinia), a mild, non-dangerous form of smallpox which is given by vaccination, or by milking a cow whose udders are infected by the eruption in cowpox. In these cases, they are usually immune; not always, but usually.

For vaccination purposes, the vaccine virus is obtained from bovine or human sources—human very rarely now, for the supply would not be so pure and because of the possibility of transmitting any diseases the donor may have.

Tomorrow I will tell you how vaccine is obtained.

CHAPTER XVIII.
"Suppose I could make him love me, Butterfly? Suppose I told Craig to take you away, and suppose I tried to win Konrad? I might."

Dora's expression was shocked and incredulous. This was Hilary's voice, quiet, thoughtful, tender, as she had heard it all her life. But these could not be Hilary's words! Hilary—who had never failed her—who adored her and believed in her and gave her every good thing in life—

"You wouldn't!" she said, proudly.

"I might—for Konrad, Butterfly. If—if I truly believed that I would make him the better wife!"

Dora's cheeks grew crimson. "You couldn't do that, Sis! If I meant the happiness of my whole life!"

They were both on their feet now, looking at each other across the length of the mantel. Darkness had long ago filled the street outside, here in the warm, luxurious room the firelight shone brightly, and the rose-colored great lamp that Hilary had touched sent a pool of soft brilliance upon their empty chairs.

Dora came close to her sister, her brown eyes darker than ever, with fear and supplication and passion.

"You promised Mother—you promised Father—that if it were for my work—" she said, breathing hard.

Hilary, who had rested one elbow upon the mantel that was not quite as high as her shoulder, looked down at Dora, small, pale, and agitated, over her other shoulder.

"I'm sorry, Butterfly!" she said. "But—this time it means my life and my happiness, too!"

She turned back to the mantel, and rested her folded arms upon it, and dropped her head upon her arms. She heard a sharp sound from Dora, not a sigh, not quite an exclamation. When she turned back to the room again, a long, long time later, Dora had noiselessly vanished.

That they should meet quite naturally at dinner, and talk together, and later play the usual several rubbers of bridge, seemed the unbelievable, impossible thing. Yet, like many another unbelievable, impossible thing it happened: there were guests, seven in all, for dinner, and Hilary, Craig said, had never seemed so amusing and so brilliant.

As for Dora, in creamy-white satin, without jewels or ornaments, she was exquisite. Her color was high, her laughter incessant, and the radiant aura of health and young beauty that hung about her, the fragrance and color and glow, captivated them all, even including Hilary.

Craig was always extremely susceptible to the charm of his wife's beauty; she had young Bert Hungerford as her partner tonight, but whenever he was dummy Craig wandered to her table, and stood looking down at her bright head, her white gown and shining little white slippers, and the soft little hand that held the cards.

Hilary did not play bridge, but Dora had learned to play extremely well. Hilary was paired with the older Jesse Duer, a man of perhaps fifty-five, at Russian Bank. This she could play, and her old partner thoroughly enjoyed himself; he was justly proud of his game, he immensely admired young Mrs. Spaulding's handsome sister, and he liked to have the bridge players saunter over, when they were at leisure, to watch his intricate weaving and maneuvering.

Incredible—incredible—incredible! thought Hilary, as the bright hours slipped by. Tomorrow night was the opera with the Wests, and on Friday the big charity affair at which she and Dora were listed to sell books or flowers or signed photographs. And that amazing talk in her bedroom was not a dream—

"Go play us something, Hilary!" Mrs. Carter Hungerford said at eleven o'clock.

"Oh, not tonight!"

"Oh, yes," said little Dora, putting an arm about Hilary, and pushing her gently along. Hilary was on the piano bench, had laid her white hands upon the keys, and Dora, so close that her white satin touched Hilary's black lace, had picked up her violin.

So they had been a thousand—ten thousand—times; Hilary's clean-cut harmonies carrying the high silver thread of melody that rose and fell from the Amati, Hilary's little sister looking keenly over her shoulder. Tonight she felt, sitting so, that her heart would break with the burden that it carried. The one exquisite thing, the one rare thing of her life: her covenant with Dora's father and mother, her sacred promise to cherish and help the little sister who was broken.

Dora was no longer first; and Dora could stand here, smiling and beautiful, with the cruel knowledge of their secret between

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS

"Sainly Hypocrites," opening last night at the tent theatre of Mahurin's Players (Murphy's Comedians), corner of Central avenue and Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, proved to be a strong melodrama of unusual merit, full of thrills and heart throbs.

Here is one of the greatest plays of the day, made famous throughout the East by George Harrison, its author-producer, and soon to be done in pictures by the Fox Film Co., according to Manager J. A. Menard of Mahurin's Players.

As the seating capacity of the tent is limited and thousands will want to see this old favorite, Mr. Menard urges Glendaleans to purchase their tickets in advance for "Sainly Hypocrites" at J. J. Schulte's drug store, 251 North Brand boulevard. The curtain rises nightly at 8:15 o'clock.

"My Lord, what a picture!" Jesse Duer said, watching the two beautiful young heads in the soft lamplight, the blue-eyed brunette so grave, the brown-eyed blonde like a smiling little Dresden shepherdess.

"Are they wonderful?" Mrs. Carter Hungerford asked.

"The feeling between them, Lizzy," said Craig's mother to the last speaker, "is the most extraordinary thing I ever saw. Butterfly turns to Hilary as if she were her mother, and I really think Hilary would die for her sister. Wouldn't you, Hilary?" she smiled, as the girl came up to them.

"I didn't hear you," Hilary said, in her faintly husky, pleasant voice, "but I have no doubt that I would—or wouldn't—whichever you decided!"

"When do you get into your new quarters, Grace?" Lizzy Hungerford asked.

"Next week, we hope. And this girl goes with me!" Mrs. Spaulding answered, an affectionate big square arm about Hilary. Hilary had a sudden feeling that it would be a relief to leave Dora's house; she felt that many days of this surface sweetness and placidity between herself and Dora would suffocate her.

She was talking with Craig and his mother in the drawing room, half an hour later, and their guests had all gone, when Dora called to them all, from the doorway, a smiling and sleepy good-night. Hilary carried a heavy heart up to bed. No kiss from Butterfly, no real understanding. She was placed with all the others

THE GATEWAY

Visitors to the Paramount Long Island studio who like to hob-nob with people with titles got the thrill of their lives recently while Allan Dwan was producing Gloria Swanson's latest production, "Her Love Story." He had a whole flock of men and women working for him in various scenes of the picture who lay claim to titles, from baronesses to officers in the Imperial Russian army. They appear in support of the star and principal players, Ian Keith, George Fawcett, Echlin Gayer and Mario Majeroni.

When notified that he was to make "Her Love Story," which is a Mary Roberts Rinehart story of the Balkan states, Mr. Dwan ordered the casting director to get as many true types as possible for use in the production. Two days later Mr. Dwan had signed the Baroness Franziska de Hedemann, who spent many years in Roumania; Count Andre Tsapalos of Cernoviz, a Greek; Gen. Lodi-jensky, Majors Solihoff, Guirey and Natirboff, Captains Panhoff and Limansky and Lieut. Maleff, all Russians who served in the Balkan states. The Baroness de Hedemann plays the role of Gloria's mother, and also acted as adviser on all matters pertaining to court etiquette, while Capt. Fred von Nansen, who was in the Austrian diplomatic corps stationed in Greece and Roumania, acted as technical director. The rest of the above mentioned have various parts in the picture itself.

"Her Love Story," adapted by Frank Tuttle from Mrs. Rinehart's novel, "Her Majesty, the Queen," is playing today and Tuesday at the Gateway theatre.

now, with Craig and his mother, outside the pale of Butterfly's heart, to be satisfied with that evasive smile and that significant silence.

It was several hours later, and she was exhausted, and perhaps somewhat relieved, with weeping, when she sank off into heavy sleep.

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE COLD CAKE
"My goodness! Are you going out again today?" called Nurse Jane to Uncle Wiggily one morning, as she saw him looking for his golf cap under the piano.

"Why, yes, I am," answered the bunny gentleman. "Did you want me to bring you anything from the store?"

"I wanted you to stay at home with me today," spoke Nurse Jane, sort of switching her tail from side to side, disappointed like. "I thought maybe you would play tidily winks."

"Bless my pink nose!" laughed the bunny. "Tidily winks is a game that is too tame for me. I must have some exciting adventure to make me forget how hot it is. Goodness! But it is going to be another warm day, I am going to the ice cave of Mr. White-wash to keep cool. Better come with me, Nurse Jane."

"Thank you, no," answered the muskrat lady housekeeper. "Since you opened the shut window for me, and started the electric fan, I am cool enough. I hope you have a nice time."

"Since I am going to an ICE cave, I think perhaps I shall have a NICE time!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "That's a joke, you see, Janie!" and he playfully poked her in the ribs as he hopped away.

When Mr. Longears reached the cave of the ice bear Mr. White-wash wasn't at home, but Uncle Wiggily was expected, for, hanging from an icicle, was a sign, made of snowballs, saying:

SIT DOWN AND WAIT FOR ME.

"All right, I'll sit down and wait," said Uncle Wiggily. "But I must take care not to sit on a cold cake of ice or I might freeze fast. I will sit on one of the stone chairs." For Mr. White-wash, being a big strong polar bear, had in his ice cave chairs carved out of stone. They had carved cushions to make them soft for bunny rabbits.

Uncle Wiggily sat in the stone chair near a big cake of ice. And soon he began to feel so cool, on account of the cold cake, that he placed over the chunk of ice a bunch of seaweed that Mr. White-wash kept for making cushions.

"I certainly am cool enough now," thought the rabbit, "though it is very hot outside." Just as he said this he heard some one coming in the ice cave. Thinking it was Mr. White-wash, the bunny called:

"I've been waiting for you!"

"Yes, and I've been waiting for you, and now I have you!" hoveled a rough voice, and into the cave popped the Woodie Wolf.

"Oh—do you want me?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Oh—Oh—dear!" and he was quite out of breath from fright.

"Yes, I want you!" growled the Wolf. "I am going to take you off to my den!"

"Would you mind—would you mind waiting until I get my breath back?" begged the bunny. "I couldn't walk this way—all out of breath—you—you frightened me so. Sit down and wait a minute," and Uncle Wiggily pointed to the cold cake of ice, over which he had placed some seaweed.

"Yes, I'll wait for you," growled the Wolf. Then, not knowing there was freezing ice

LOCALS CONTINUE DROPPING GAMES

Hollywood Merchants Come Here and Trim White Sox by 12 to 8

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.

The Glendale White Sox continued their losing streak when they dropped a one-sided affair to the Hollywood Merchants at the White Sox park yesterday, 12-8. Reiger, recently moundsman for the locals, pitched the Merchants to a fairly easy victory, although he was touched for ten bingles he retired twelve Glendale batsmen via the strike-out route.

The Movie City outfit scored two in the first on Smith's hard hit to center field which went for a triple, a walk, a force-out, and high throw by Maier, Glendale shortstop, who tried to double Stallup at first. The Sox came back with a brace in their half of the first on successive singles by Blenkiron, Hawks, and Dorman, and two passed balls by Yardly.

Take Lead in Second

The Merchants took the lead in the second with a pair of markers which were the results of a single to left by Smith, Cutting's Texas leaguer over third, and a sharp hit by Herman, which hopped around Shellenback at second. In the sixth the visitors went wild and scored six runs cinching the game. Reiger walked and was forced a second by Smith, Linstrum to Hawks. Cutting was safe on Shellenback's boot. Meadows hit a Texas leaguer between short and left which went for a double and scored Smith and Cutting. Herman walked. Stallup scored Meadows and Herman with a two-base blow to center. Lindstrum doubled to right scoring Stallup, and Carlton singled sharply along the first base line sending in Linstrum.

Locals Score Four

Glendale scored four in the last half of the sixth when Blenkiron bunted safely and trotted in on Hawk's homer over Meadows' head. Dorman bunted safely, and took second on Shellenback's single. Dorman went home and Shellenback took third when Yardly threw to right field in an effort to catch "Shelly" off first. The Glendale second sacker scored on Shelly's infield out.

Glendale put two across in the eighth on a double by Shields. A single and a stolen base by Maier, and a Texas leaguer by Teliez. The Merchants added two for good luck in the ninth on Smith's infield hit and Meadows' long home run over the automobiles parked along the right field fence line.

Looks Dangerous

The Sox began to look dangerous in the ninth but were robbed of their chance of a fluke play. Young popped to Linstrum. Blenkiron beat out an infield hit. Hawks was safe on Smith's error. Dorman hit one towards short which fell over Stallup's head. Stallup got the ball and ran. Blenkiron down, Hawks taking second. There was an argument over the decision and Hawks, while taking part in the argument, was tagged by Stallup and declared out.

Linstrum was the slugging star of the day, getting four singles and as many singles in four times at bat. Hawks and Dorman each got two hits in five trips to the plate. Archie Thornton, local slat artist, had an off day, issuing seven passes, and fanning only four of the opposing batters. The Merchants knocked his offering for sixteen hits, eight of them extra base blows. The box score:

Ducks and Geese at Salton Sea District

NILAND, Sept. 22.—Although the season doesn't open until October 16, ducks and geese are plentiful on the Salton Sea because of many streams having gone dry in northern climes, it is said. The hunters will be well rewarded when the season does open. Colorado river bottoms near Blythe also will abound with feathered favorites of the nimrods and both the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe are planning excursion rates, it is reported.

Football's Back Again

There are a few changes for football this season. For instance, tees won't be served kickers. Less time is permitted for fixing shoes. The field judge will pack a gun—not to shoot the players, however. The "ineligible" gets some rights. It looks like a big season is ahead for the pig-skin artists.

SEALS TAKE LONG END FROM VERNON

Marty Griffin Is Victim of Early Game; Sacramento
Wallops Seattle

By THREE STRIKES
For Southern News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22.—By splitting a doubleheader with Vernon yesterday, the San Francisco Seals took the series from the locals by grabbing four games out of seven. The Tigers romped away to victory in the opener, 10 to 5, while in the twilight contest the visitors were able to connect for timely hits, and came out with a 3-to-1 victory.

Marty Griffin, stellar twirler for the Seals, who has been somewhat of a sensation this season in the Coast league, was the victim of Bengal batsmen in the first game and was driven from the battle in the fifth. Ed Bryan hurled a neat game for the Tigers and helped clinch things for Bill Essick's crew by driving in two runs in the fifth frame.

The second game was tied up, 1 to 1, until the seventh, when Fulton was touched for two scores by Bert Ellison's help, giving them an easy lead which they maintained the remainder of the game. Bill Crockett, on the mound for the Seals, held the Tigers hitless.

Seattle Drops Double

Seattle's hopes for the pennant fell considerably yesterday, when Sacramento walked off with a double victory, 8 to 3 and 10 to 8. The Angels took the morning game from Oakland, 9 to 2, but dropped the afternoon contest, 16 to 6. Crandall was the victorious pitcher for the Angels, while Dumovick suffered the defeat in the last game.

At Salt Lake, Portland and the Beavers taking the twin bill, the 2 to 2, the Mormons running away in the second tilt, 11 to 2.

World Series Starts Saturday, October 4

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The 1924 world's series will begin in the pennant-winning American league city on Saturday, October 4, unless a tie in either league necessitates a playoff, club owners of the leading teams decided at a conference with Commissioner K. M. Landis. The first, second and sixth games will be played in the American league city and the third, fourth and fifth in the National league city. Games will be played on consecutive days. If a seventh game is necessary, a toss of a coin will determine its setting. All world's series games will begin at 2 p. m. eastern standard time. Admittance prices will be the same as those of last year.

Marvin Moudy Signs To Hurl for Seals

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Marvin Moudy, sailor of the U. S. California, will pitch for the Seals next season. Announcement of his signing was made today. His enlistment expires in December.

Marvin Moudy is well known to

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Written for The Evening News.

The time has come, as the Walrus once remarked, to talk and write football.

And naturally the first thought about the opening of the season is regarding any changes that have been made in the rules of the game over the off season.

There have been a few—three or four. But they are not ones that affect materially the general style of the game or the rules.

High real estate values, the eternal cry for speed and the inability of the human voice to cope with the bedlam of the ever growing crowds rather than faults in the game itself brought about these changes.

Important Change

The most important revision in the rules is the one governing the kickoff. Two alterations are made here. First, the kickoff is to be made from midfield instead of the 40-yard line.

Secondly the kickoff itself must be made without the assistance of an artificial tee of any kind. Experts who favored this change pointed out that much time was wasted in past seasons and in many instances comprehensive landscaping projects ruined by the zealous efforts of a team to build up a suitable tee for the ball. The location of the kickoff is advanced 10 yards toward the opponents' goal to offset temporary differences in the length of the kick due to this change.

At first thought the tendency is to cry that this will still handicap the side kicking off. But the truth is that the change will work no hardship. Old stars developed distance and deadly accuracy on the kickoff from the level take-off. Eventually kickers found it easier to get lift and distance from a tee so perfected this style—and in perfecting it went to extremes which made it an evil and forced the change.

Make It Snappy

The cry for speed in the conduct of the game caused officials to limit the number of time-out periods each half to four. Additional requests for respites will draw five-yard penalties instead of a two-yard fine.

This will reduce the number of broken shoe laces considerably.

The field judge will carry a gun.

He will not give exhibitions of bringing down a football at 50 yards with it, however. The innovation is proposed to enable him to call an abrupt, definite and final ending to each period. The tide of battle in many games has hinged upon the final whistle at the end of a quarter or the game itself. Frequently pandemonium reigned at the crucial moment and the feeble efforts of the judge to draw the attention of the officials have gone unobserved for varying periods of time.

Point After Touchdown

Two other changes, more technical will also be noted. Another attempt is made to perfect a more satisfactory method of trying for the point after a touchdown.

The rule in effect last season gave the scoring team the ball on or behind the opponent's five-yard line. They were permitted to kick, run or pass the ball over the line for the additional point. Officials found, however, that the

He was one of the best looking senior prospects seen at the local park in many a day, and several scouts were stationed in the stands when Moudy made his last appearance on the mound here.

TEN VETERANS IN BRANCH LINEUP

Southern Varsity to Hold
First Practice Contest
With Freshman Team

King Football has come into his own at the Southern Branch, as over 115 candidates for the Grizzly gridiron machine greeted Coach Jimmy Cline at opening practice, and from the spirit shown by the men, the coming season promises to be one of the best ever had by the southern institution.

Head Coach Cline will have ten lettermen back from last year, and with the addition of a few graduates from the championship freshman squad of last season, should be able to mold together a machine that will give any squad in the conference a stiff battle. At this early date the greatest every confronting Cline is the development of a punter, and Jimmie will spend the next two weeks working with the men in hopes of turning out a capable booter.

Six Line Veterans

Charley Toney, line coach, will have six veterans with which to form the nucleus of his forward wall, Captain Hollingsworth heading the list, with Collins, Gardner, Bishop, Breesee and Jennings assisting. The line will be light, averaging around the 160 mark, but what the boys lack in weight will be made up in fight.

Cline will be assisted with the backfield men by "Muggs" Van Sant, former Berkeley star, and the two will have four vets to start with. Peak, last year's fullback; Frost, half; Parisi and Timmons, quarterbacks, are the men, and Muggler and Blackmer, from the fresh, have the best chances of breaking into the line-up, both being stars on last year's combination. Muggler will probably fill in at full, with Frost and Peak playing half. The fight for the signal calling job will be a close one, as both Parisi and Timmons are good field generals.

Practice Contest

The first practice affair of the season will come off this week, when the varsity tackles the freshmen. This clash will give the coaching staff a good line on their men and will probably decide the lineup for the Loyola game the following week.

The following is the football kick was resorted to invariably. This year the ball will be placed on the three-yard line. The defending team must protect the entire goal line. It is hoped that this will encourage more rushing, passing or trick plays and reduce the number of trials for goal via the boot.

Forward Pass

Another technical point is altered. When an ineligible player is struck by a forward pass a member of the defending team may catch the ball before it strikes the ground and endeavor to gain as much ground as he can. That's about all, with the exception of a few changes in phraseology to clear up disputed points.

No restrictions are placed on the size of pennants or chrysanthemums.

Yale is still allowed to have eleven men on the field at once—which automatically ruins the season for Princeton and Harvard. But the schedules will be played out, nevertheless.

Let's go.

GIANTS - PIRATES GAME POSTPONED

New York and Pittsburgh
Do Not Clash Today
Because of Rain

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The baseball game between Pittsburgh and the New York Giants, scheduled for here today, was postponed on account of rain. Today's postponed game will be played Thursday, an open date.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The standing of the three leading teams in each major league and the number of games remaining on each team's schedule is as follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
W.	L.	Pct.	To	Play
New York	89	.591	6	5
Brooklyn	89	.591	6	5
Pittsburgh	88	.591	6	5

New York	85	.578	7	5
Detroit	82	.550	5	5

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Baseball today enters in its last week of the season.

Down the final stretch three clubs are battling neck and neck. In the National league it is New York, Brooklyn and Pittsburgh. In the American league it is Washington, New York and Detroit.

Seven days to go—seven hectic, battle-swept days; seven days of fight, and fight and fight. No chance now to ease up or catch breath; no chance to stumble and recover; no chance to fumble and retrieve.

Just fight it—breath-taking, nerve racking fight.

Question of Nerve

It isn't a question of baseball ability and baseball strategy and baseball polish now. It's a question of nerve—pure, unadulterated nerve.

It's a question of stamina and fight and inspiration. It's a question of heart.

The strain of the season, and the grueling pace of the closing month have taken their toll. They show in the nervous, drawn faces of the players; they are apparent in the eagerness of the batters stepping to the plate; in the nervousness of the infielders crouching on their toes awaiting the ball. And they are apparent in the grouchiness of the athletes, the readiness to quarrel and find fault and berate umpires, opponents and spectators alike.

But the best test ahead lies in these seven days that remain. And the winner will be the club that has the nerve and stamina and heart to keep going and going and going.

Half Game Lead

In the National league, the Giants with six games to play, have a half game lead over the inspired Brooklyn. And the Dodgers, fighting so manfully, have only five remaining games.

But ahead of the Giants looms the gaunt, ferocious spectre of Pittsburgh. Beginning today the Giants meet Pittsburgh in three games and in those three games will be written the history of the National league pennant.

Over in the American league the flying Senators seem safely in. The Yankees, plowing along behind them, are floundering and staggering in the stretch.

Baseball history will be written during these next seven days. It will be written at the Polo Grounds.

A CALL FOR MURPHY VOLUNTEERS

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

Are the GLOOM DWELLERS to always have their WAY? Is it an immutable law, that those who WOULD BRING A LITTLE MORE SUNSHINE into our lives must be persecuted, stoned, and nailed to a cross?

It seems that way!

Throughout the weary wanderings of man to a happier, more contented, and securer condition of life the INNOVATORS, the MEN OF MIRTH AND SCIENCE, those THAT DARED TO THINK AND DO, have been hounded, cursed and condemned. The WHOLE COURSE OF HISTORY is replete with "Man's inhumanity" to the men and women that BORE THE TORCH OF PROGRESS.

This is not a vale of tears! This world was not made simply to grieve over yesterday and mourn the morrow! This little stage is our heritage to make of it a "Little Heaven Blessed!" All power to those that lighten the burden, can brush away the tears! The "man of mirth" is worth his weight in gold! He is a Doctor of the Body and the Soul! Heaven help the fellow without a sense of humor, for he is poor indeed. Wit is man's most powerful stabilizer! It whips him into shape, through it "he sees himself as others see him," it makes him human, fit to mingle with others of his species.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF GLENDALE, AND ALL OF YOU WHO HAVE LAUGHED YOURSELVES BETTER AT MURPHY'S COMEDIANS, WE ASK YOU STRAIGHT TO YOUR FACE:

"SHALL THE PEOPLE OF GLOOM DRIVE MURPHY'S COMEDIANS OUT OF TOWN?" We say NO, not by a heck of a long way! This is one time when LAUGHTER and OPTIMISM shall lick the ROYAL ORDER OF GROUCHES!

COME ON, you hundreds of MURPHY'S FRIENDS, those of you that have sent in those thousands of encouraging kindly letters to him through the months of his persecutions and struggles!

COME ON, you corps of young Men and Women that have expressed your willingness in every way, fashion and form to help Murphy and his splendid cast of Actors and Actresses!

WE WANT YOU NOW. He must sell just another SIX THOUSAND BOOKS OF RESERVED SEAT TICKETS TO THE NEW THEATRE within TWO WEEKS so that it will be IMPOSSIBLE TO DRIVE HIM AND HIS SPLENDID PEOPLE FROM THIS DANDY CITY.

COME ON and Help! We Want TWO HUNDRED WILLING MURPHY VOLUNTEERS to help us for TWO WEEKS TO PUT THIS THING OVER.

COME ON, YOU YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN, REGISTER TONIGHT or TOMORROW and we Will make THE GLOOM CROWD look pale within a Week.

JUST TWO HUNDRED! ARE YOU WILLING? THEN PHONE GLENDALE 3077 or COME to 219½ East Broadway, or at the Reserved Seat Ticket Office on the Tent Grounds. COME ON! STRIKE FOR A GOOD CAUSE! AND WIN! WITH MURPHY!

Original Army & Navy Store Tells of Sale

Hundreds of dollars' worth of articles from the stock of the original Army & Navy Store at 201 South Brand boulevard will be thrown from the roof to the throngs below, on Thursday morning, September 25, as a part of the mammoth "Unloading Sale" opening that day, announces Stephen W. Huntington, proprietor, who has decided to sell out and will vacate the premises within thirty days.

These articles will be a selection from among such articles as wearing apparel, army and navy goods and hiking equipment, Mr. Huntington states, and will be given entirely gratis to those below on the sidewalk lucky enough to catch them as they fall.

In order to prepare for the big liquidation sale, the store will be closed tomorrow and Wednesday, he states, when prices will be entirely rearranged without regard to original cost.

"I am going out of business and I have to unload," says Mr. Huntington in explaining this sale. "The people of Glendale have been generous in their patronage during the years I have run this store and I intend to repay them during this sale for their co-operation."

"In many cases we are going to sell goods for a mere fraction of what they cost us. Values such as we will offer are unheard of and anyone who needs hiking clothes, camping equipment or similar articles cannot afford to overlook this sale, full particulars of which will appear in The Glendale Evening News."

Lineberger's Secretary Is Visitor In Glendale

Miss Ethel Barker, secretary to Congressman William F. Lineberger, was in Glendale Saturday afternoon and visited The Glendale Evening News office. Miss Barker has been spending the summer in Glendale and plans to return to Washington, D. C. some time after Thanksgiving. A week ago it was her interesting experience to accompany Congressman and Mrs. Lineberger to Mount Wilson to make a survey of the forest fire area. While in Southern California Miss Barker has spent some time with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Cadet Taylor of Pomona.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

According to Mrs. Sidney Dell, Glendale registrar of voters, registration closes October 4 and will not be held in Glendale until January 1, 1926. After October 4 those desiring to register may find it necessary to go to Los Angeles. Mrs. Dell states that she will be located during banking hours at the Security Trust & Savings bank. Those wanting to transfer in registering are asked to reprints.

"We have a large stock of goods here, stuff of excellent quality and bound to sell fast. Those who get the choicest selection will be the early comers. Sales like this come only once in the history of a man's career. Nothing like this could possibly be offered in Glendale or elsewhere unless a firm were going out of business, which is the case in this instance. A word to the wise will be sufficient, I feel, to bring all my old friends to my store on Thursday morning, bright and early."

CITY PRINTING PUBLIC NOTICE

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of Section 2, Article XV of the Charter of the City of Glendale, a petition has been filed with the City Clerk of said City by Edward G. NOW THEREFORE, and pursuant to the requirements of said Section 2, Article XV of the Charter of the City of Glendale, and the direction of said City Council,

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of the 2nd day of October, 1924, at the Council Chamber in the City of Glendale, a public hearing will be given and had on said proposed amendment or change of said Commercial District before the City Council; and

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at the hour of 7:30 P. M. of the 29th day of September, 1924 at the Council Chamber in the City of Glendale, a public hearing will be given and had on said proposed amendment or change before the City Planning Commission, when and where all persons having any objections to said amendment or change in said Commercial District, may appear before said City Council and said Planning Commission, and present any objection or objections, which they may have to said proposed amendment or change in said Commercial District. The petition above referred to is on file in the City of Glendale and is hereby referred to for further particulars.

This notice shall be published once in The Glendale Evening News, the official newspaper of said City, at least ten days before the date of the hearing hereinafter mentioned.

Dated, September 22, 1924.

J. J. VAN WIE,
City Clerk of the City of Glendale.

CHRYSLER WINNER IN SEVERE TEST

Stock Car, With De Palma
At Wheel, Establishes Wonderful Record

Successfully completing the severest test of endurance ever asked of any stock car in a California event, a stock Chrysler six touring car with Ralph De Palma at the wheel covered 1,000 miles on a Fresno track last Wednesday in the remarkable time of one thousand and seven minutes, and fifty-four and eight-tenths seconds. This was an average of fifty-nine and fifty-four one hundredths miles per hour for the entire distance, which was covered in sixteen hours and forty-seven and a fraction minutes. The timing of the event was in the hands of Val Haresnape and Hal Weller, acting as official representatives of the A. A. A. Their activities were confined to the timing, however, and the A. A. A. did not certify as to the fact that the Chrysler was strictly stock or not, this being done by representatives of a Los Angeles newspaper who handled the run.

Off on Long Grind

De Palma was sent away on the long grind at twenty-five minutes after two o'clock on Wednesday morning. During the early part of the run he set an amazing average of more than sixty-six miles an hour. As morning came and the temperature began to rise, trouble with inner tubes began to give delay. De Palma was using full balloon tires—probably the first time that they were ever used in a speed event of this character, and the extreme high speed on the turns caused tubes to pinch. Otherwise the balloons gave a splendid account of themselves and the casings showed virtually no wear at the end of the thousand miles. In all, nine changes were necessary, and this with the stops for fuel which the standard gas tank made imperative, cut into his average.

An official thermometer at the track at mid-day showed a temperature of 102 degrees, but the Chrysler at no time gave evidence of overheating. The fenders of the car were removed, so that De Palma could watch the condition of his casings, but the body of the car was left on and only the top was removed. De Palma drove the entire distance without relief.

Most Severe Test

"To my knowledge, this was the severest test ever asked of a stock car in California," said Lyman Clark, local Chrysler dealer, at the close of the run.

"The fact that the car was absolutely stock, gear ratio, motor and all shows convincingly, we believe, a remarkable degree of endurance. We were not endeavoring to prove speed in the test, but brated Mexican chef, Frank Mendables, there was a program headed by Jimmy Foley, Pasadena poet, followed by Jimmy Smith, from Tujunga, of portable organ fame.

Virgil B. Stone, Glendale city manager, then spoke, expressing the satisfaction of officials in this efficient unit built up by Chief Hayselden, and declaring that the city could rest assured of adequate protection, in the event of a hill fire.

Officials Speak
Councilmen S. A. Davis, C. E. Kimlin and S. S. Gilhuly also spoke, as did John F. Johannsen, new city engineer; Chief A. H. Lankford of the Glendale fire department; Chief P. J. Hayselden of the Glendale unit, Angeles Forest Protective association; Leo Lang, first assistant chief of the same; Ray Fairall, Joe Bennett, W. J. Curran and others.

Large portions of the barbecued beef and "fixins" were sent by Chief Hayselden's order to the fire department boys of Station No. 1, 311 East Broadway, and Station No. 3, Glorieta avenue, Verdugo Woodlands.

Night School Class Schedule Arranged

men's gymnasium, women's gymnasium.

All classes except public speaking and dramatics which are scheduled for Monday are also scheduled for the same time on Wednesday, and all classes scheduled on Tuesday are also scheduled for the same time on Thursday.

Avoid Confusion
All who enroll on either Monday or Tuesday are requested to go directly to their classes, which in most cases are in the same rooms as last year, and to enroll with the teacher in charge, and in that way avoid confusion in the office. The office will be open from 7 to 9 each evening to answer inquiries.

Judging from the inquiries already made concerning the evening school work, there will be a large attendance again this year, and on that account those who expect to enter should do so the first evening and avoid being put on a waiting list where the number in a class must be limited.

All evening school classes are held in the Harvard High.

Particular attention is called to rather to show the ability of the car to stand up under the extreme strain of running practically wide open for a thousand miles. Any one who has ever driven a stock car at speeds near sixty miles an hour knows that it is a terrific test of endurance for any car to do this."
